BY THE HEADMASTER.

WHAT a wonderful change has come over the world since the last issue of our Magazine in July last! We were just beginning to see the edge of what we hoped was the silver lining of the black cloud of war that had been hovering over us for four long, weary, anxious years. And now that cloud has entirely lifted and the cruel war, we believe, has ended, and the God of Battles has blessed us with victory. Armistice Day, Nov. 11th, 1918, will be a date we shall always remember with joy and thankfulness, although tinged with sadness, owing to the absence of many of those who have "crossed the bar" to the bourn of eternal peace, by whose heroic self-sacrificing deeds war has been almost certainly ended for our generation, and, let us hope, for ever.

Now that the thunder of the murderous guns of Mars has ceased, one can almost, in imagination, hear the fluttering of the wings of the Angel of Peace, hovering over a war-worn world, waiting for the time to make a final resting place on this dear Land of ours. By the time I am penning my notes for the Easter Term Magazine, may we hear that Angel's glad song of "Peace on Earth, good-will to men."

During the bitter fighting of the closing months of the war, at least five more of my dear Old 'Boys have passed "beyond the veil" to receive the "well done" of their Maker for the glorious self-sacrifice they have made for righteousness and truth, so that their loved ones may live in safety and peace in this fair Land of ours, freed for ever from the dread of the "mailed fist" of military despotism and the over-weening arrogance of an envious and ruthless tyrant.

Towards the end of July a small contingent of our Cadet Corps, encouraged by the good wishes and applause of their chums and friends, entrained for the Public Secondary Schools O.T.C. and Cadet Camp at Marlborough, where some 2,000 cadets, representing some sixty-six regiments and public schools, had assembled. On another page will be seen how well they maintained the fame of our Corps and the honour of the Norfolk Regiment, to which they are so proud to be affiliated. For our Quarter-guard to win the high approval of the General of the Southern Command, and to be mentioned in their orders, for our Section to carry off the coveted "Walton Shield"—the Blue Ribbon of the Cadet World,—for our popular 2nd-Lieut. S. E. Sennitt to win the Officers' Race in full kit, and for our Sergt.-Major, H. G. Arnold, to be complimented for having the best laid out kit in the whole camp, are honours of which we are very proud and of which any school in the land might be justifiably proud.

To be the recipients of such a splendid appreciation by the Camp

Commandant, to be congratulated and thanked by the Lord-Lieutenant of the County, who has kindly consented to be the President of our Corps, and also by the Committee of the Norfolk Territorial Force Association, by General Seallon at the War Office, by Colonel Currie, the Commandant of all the Norfolk Cadets, by Lord Suffield, and others, are matters of great satisfaction and pride to the whole Corps.

Then, after the School vacation, to enter for and to win for the second year in succession the Lucas-Tooth Competition, awarded to the most efficient Cadet Corps in Norfolk, must be acknowledged to be a very good performance and speaks much for the keenness and efficiency of the Cadets, and the care and skill of those responsible for their training.

Another distinction which we much appreciated was the invitation of the Colonel Commandant for our Bugle Band to head all the Norwich Cadets on the occasion of the great Thanksgiving Service at the Cathedral after the conclusion of the Armistice. This was so satisfactorily done as to win the appreciation and warmly-expressed thanks of the Commandant.

Shortly after this all ranks of our Corps joined in making a presentation of a handsome gold signet ring, as a mark of their great appreciation, to my nephew and old pupil, Lieut. J. H. Chapman, of the 1/4th Norfolk Regt., who has been attached to our Corps, and who was chiefly responsible for the training of the Cadets in these competitions. He cheerfully and gladly assumed these duties at a time when we were sorely handicapped by the absence of Capt. Tench in France, and the incapacitation of Capt. Ferris, through ill-health, and also by the loss of our Instructor. How well and skilfully he carried out the task the successes of the Corps bear ample testimony.

To mark his appreciation of the fine performances of the Corps, Capt. Tench has generously presented us with a very handsome silver mace, which our smart Drum-Major handles in a skilful and taking manner.

Mr. T. B. Webber, who has filled the vacancy on the School Staff, occasioned by the departure of Capt. Ferris, has been given a Lieutenant's commission in the Corps. He obtained his discharge from the Army, owing to wounds, after two years' service in the Sportsman's Company of the Royal Fusiliers.

We must also congratulate Horace G. Arnold, who, after acting for some time as Sergt.-Major, was deservedly given a commission as 2nd-Lieutenant in our Corps. He has now left school and has taken up his residence in London, where he is studying at the Royal College of Science, to which, after his brilliant school career, he won a Scholarship of Fifty Pounds a year for three years. May he be even more successful at college than he has been at school!

There will be another change on our Staff next term, as Mr. F. V. S. Lorda is marrying an English lady and returning to his native island, Cuba, where we wish him much happiness and prosperity. He received handsome presents from the School and Staff, and from the Headmaster and Mrs. Chapman, at the end of the Term.

I am just appointing Mr. Lorda's successor—Mr. V. M. Hume—who has had good experience in teaching, and is also reputed to be a very good exponent of games, an accomplishment that will help to make him popular with the boys.

With the exception of the epidemic of influenza, the health of the School has been quite good, and we may congratulate ourselves on being practically the only school in the district that has not been obliged to close. Of course, the absence of several boys at various times has impeded the School work to some extent, and, unfortunately, five or six of our very best pupils have been prevented by influenza from taking the Public Examinations, but we look to the rest to do their utmost to maintain the high reputation we have won in the past.

All things considered, the work of the School has gone on satisfactorily during the term, and these last two weeks have found us in the turmoil of examinations throughout the whole School for testing the work done during the year.

We do not often enter pupils for the Summer Public Examinations because we think the long winter evenings afford better opportunities for preparation for the December examinations. This year, however, we had two entrants for the July examinations—Horace G. Arnold and Clifford G. Coleman. The former did so well in the Cambridge Higher Local Examination as to secure the Scholarship already mentioned, and the latter obtained quite a good pass in the Cambridge Senior Local Examination.

The School games have necessarily been curtailed this term through influenza, but we have had quite a good attendance at the Gymnastic Class, from which the boys are receiving much benefit.

The boys belonging to the Boxing Class are very keen, but many more should take advantage of this fine branch of physical training.

Our Rifle Range has been well patronised, and there was a very keen and close competition for the handsome silver cup presented by our President, Lord Suffield, but owing to the presentation by his Lordship in person taking place quite at the end of the present term, we are compelled to hold over the account of the proceedings till next term.

In a great many homes this will be a happier and brighter Yuletide than has been experienced for several years. Although in some, possibly in a good many cases, reunion cannot be complete, yet there is the consolation of knowing that, notwithstanding their absence on service, our dear boys are not now exposed to the same horrors and dangers as had to be faced during the last four years. Wherever they are I heartily extend my greeting and best wishes for as full a measure of happiness as is possible in the present circumstances. To parents, pupils past and present, to my Staff and all friends of the School, may this Christmas bring joy and sweet content, mingled with the hope that the future, for us all, may bring with it such blessings of health, happiness, prosperity and peace as no previous generation has ever experienced.

Ring, happy bells, across the snow;
The year is going, let him go;
Ring out the false, ring in the true.

Ring out a slowly dying cause,
And ancient forms of party strife;
Ring in the nobler modes of life,
With sweeter manners, purer laws.

Ring out old shapes of foul disease;
Ring out the narrowing lust of gold;
Ring out the thousand wars of old,
Ring in the thousand years of peace.

Ring in the valiant man and free,
The larger heart, the kindlier hand;
Ring out the darkness of the land,
Ring in the Christ that is to be.”

Old Boys' Union.

NOW that peace will be signed in the near future, we hope soon to see a good number of our Members home again and resuming their civil occupations.

As soon as possible after that we hope to resume our O.B.U. programmes in various directions, and to engage in the pleasant contests of Past and Present Boys as in the days before the war.

One of the first things will be to arrange for some great Reunion function to celebrate the home-coming.

Another year has run its course, and Members are reminded that their subscriptions for 1919 become due on the 1st of January, and will be gladly received and acknowledged by our energetic Acting-Treasurer,

MR. HERBERT H. GOOSE,
26, Neville Street, Norwich.

NEW MEMBER.

LIEUT. G. NORMAN WAITE, Norton Lee, Cardigan Road, Bridlington.

THE HEADMASTER'S LETTER.

December, 1918.

My dear Old Boys,

Again I am addressing you in an open letter as the only means of getting in touch with all who are members of our Old Boys' Union.

From many of you I have had very interesting letters, and it has been my great pleasure to meet a good number of you during the term, but I want to send you all a Christmas word of greeting.

Since last I addressed you the guns have ceased their barking and all, or nearly all, the horrors of war have ceased. Our savage and relentless foes have been brought to the knee and are now suppliants for mercy from those they have shown no particle of mercy to. You know how to treat such hypocrites. You will not stoop to such base practices as they, now you have them in your power, but you cannot fail to show your contempt and disgust of their unspeakable behaviour. They display the common quality of all bullies by becoming cringing, whimpering cowards when their turn comes to take the punishment they so richly merit, but which, I venture to say, will never be meted out to them, and could not be meted out to them, in the full measure they thoroughly deserve, because we never take a mean advantage of a fallen foe, and no punishment we could give would be adequate for their crimes.

It is to your dauntless, dogged, and determined pertinacity that this victory is due. We at home can never fully repay the great debt of gratitude we owe to your imperishable valour.

We read with pride of the hand-to-hand encounters and surpassing deeds of valour, performed through the ages past by our stout countrymen, but not one of them ever had such an ordeal of fire to face, such daily and continuous strain to bear, such horrible and barbarous inventions to cope with and overcome, as has been your hard lot to meet and conquer. How proud we are of you! How good it is to be a Briton and to see our victorious flag on spire and topmast—the emblem of freedom of right and of justice to all men!

In helping to achieve this great victory, five more, at least, of my dear old pupils have fallen. They have gone to join their chums—the other brave lads who have “gone West,” and may they all be in perfect peace in the eternal presence of the Prince of Peace.

How we wish we could have you all home this Christmas time; but that is impossible, for we must hold fast what we have won and see to it that our conditions are carried out to the letter by our beaten but crafty foe. When all is settled, when peace is signed, we hope to see you all, and what a reunion that will be! Till then, dear boys, play your part and do your duty as nobly as in the past, so that the home-coming may be all the sweeter when that happy day arrives. Wherever you are, near or far, on land or sea, may happiness attend you and joy be in your hearts this Yuletide and New Year, and may health, prosperity, and contentment be yours through all the years to come!

You are ever in my thoughts, and your steadfastness will never be forgotten.

Believe me,

Ever your affectionate Friend,

J. GEO. CHAPMAN.

Personalia.

OUR hearty congratulations are offered to LIEUT. J. J. STATHAM and LIEUT. NOEL V. BOULTON on gaining their second "star"; to LIEUT. F. J. BALY for winning the Military Cross, and for getting his second "pip"! to CADET R. V. HADDOW for being admitted into the R.F.A. Officer Cadet School; to SERGT. BERNARD H. READ, M.G. Corps, for winning the Military Medal; CADET FRED. S. SMITH, for gaining admission to the 2nd Artists' Rifles, O.T.C.; and to LIEUT. F. B. WEBBER and 2ND-LIEUT. H. G. ARNOLD for gaining Commissions in the School Cadet Corps.

We are all pleased to hear how well TOM MARGARSON is progressing at the Royal Veterinary College, London. Although not through his period of residence as a Student he has been appointed House Surgeon of the College. This is a signal, and, I should think, a unique honour for so young a man.

When on a short holiday in Scarborough during August, I was delighted to be hailed by the cheery voice of NORMAN WAITE, looking very smart in his Lieutenant's uniform. We had a very pleasant chat, and you will find an interesting letter from him in our correspondence column.

TED DANIELS called on me a short time ago, looking very well, although not yet recovered from a shrapnel wound in the right shoulder.

JACK GREHAN was gassed at Albert on August 8th, but is making a good recovery. He came to see me when home on sick leave a few weeks ago. He has developed into a fine fellow.

CLAUDE BELL has been very badly wounded in the jaw, one side of which was practically shot away, and it is really wonderful how the surgeons have been able to help him. I have seen him on two or three occasions lately, and sincerely hope his treatment will prove successful. It is cruel to see a boy just over eighteen maimed in such a way.

FLIGHT-LIEUT. E. F. MATTOCK has had his "Wings" for some months, and has been flying on the Italian Front, bombing the enemy there. He looks very well in his smart uniform.

P. F. DANIELS often looked in at the School when recently home on leave. He was looking remarkably well, and had fortunately been through the thick of the fighting on the Western Front without receiving a scratch.

CAPT. DONALD JESSOP has left the Army owing to his wounds, and has received a good pension. He is at present engaged at the Ministry of Food, and has been responsible for the direction of the rationing relating to apples and blackberries.

CAPT. E. J. TENCH has been home on leave, and spent a fair amount of it at the School with us and the boys, with whom he is a great favourite and very popular. Since his return to duty he has been located in the largest city in the north of France, and its inhabitants, freed from the yoke of the cruel and unscrupulous Hun, cannot do too much to show their gratitude for the heavenly change.

LIEUT. W. H. SMITH, another Old Boy of years ago, hailed me recently in the city. He is a fine-looking sailor, and has had the management of the shipping at Bembridge (Isle of Wight), being Control Sailing Officer of that port.

LIEUT. BERNARD H. DURRANT called and had a pleasant chat with me when home on leave. He, too, although in the thick of recent fighting, looks well and fit, and very smart.

LIEUT. FRED CONSTABLE, of the 15th Hussars, has been fighting in Belgium and Northern France, and is now with his regiment marching into Germany, and being acclaimed all along the way by the freed people as their great liberators. The taking part in some of the closing phases of this terrible war will be a proud memory for many of our fine Old Boys.

I have recently received a letter from 2ND-LIEUT. C. W. HOWARD, of Sandhurst fame, who has just joined his regiment, the 29th Lancers, or Deccan Horse, at Bombay, and is expecting to go on a four months' officers' cavalry course at Bangalore. He does not as yet find the climate too trying.

LIEUT. WILFRED T. REDGRAVE is expected home soon, and his people are now living in Norwich. He has been a prisoner of war in Germany since last March, and during the whole of that time has received only two of the parcels that have been sent to him weekly—a proof of the hunger and dishonesty of the enemy. In his last letter he had just obtained some clothes, and was looked on as a real "toff" on parade in a sweater and fur-lined coat. We hope soon to see his merry face and hear his witty tongue again.

I am sorry to hear that Trooper JOE LEE, of the Norfolk Yeomanry, has been wounded again—this time in the hand and head—and is in hospital at Leicester.

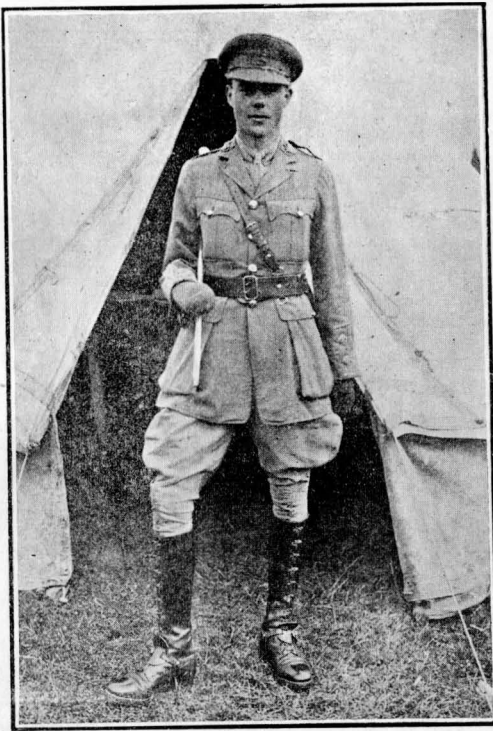

During the term I have met or received letters from many more Old Boys, among whom are W. T. GEORGE, NOEL BELL, L. H. GREENGRASS, TOM KNIGHTS, S. R. WILKINS, CORDY JEFFRIES, CORPL. HOWLETT, LIEUT. GORDON LARKING, LIEUT. E. J. CHAPMAN, 2ND-LIEUT. T. J. B. ARNOLD, 2ND-LIEUT. H. G. ARNOLD, G. B. SPRINGALL, MAJOR E. E. FELCE, FRANK ROYAL, LIEUT. G. E. SHEAD, A. H. W. MARSH, J. E. WILSON, &c., &c.

Any news of Old Boys will always be gladly received for insertion under "Personalia."

Obituary.

THE fighting during the last few months has, I grieve to say, taken a heavy toll of our dear Old Boys, as five at least have answered the summons of the Angel of Death.

Their lives laid down, their Victory won,
They dwell in their Eternal Home.

Free, we fully believe, from all sorrow and pain, they bask in the sunshine of the Eternal Presence, rewarded in full measure for the noble sacrifice they have made. Memory of them is dear to us, as it is of all those who have so bravely faced the ordeal of death for the sake of others.

To all their relatives we extend our sincerest and deepest sympathy.

With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea,
Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.

As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain,
As the stars that are starry in the time
of our darkness,
To the end, to the end, they remain.

LANCE-CORPL SIDNEY WILLIAM SHARDELOW WEYER, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weyer, of Rosary Road, Thorpe Hamlet, was born on Nov. 27th, 1885, and died at Prees Heath Military Hospital of pneumonia, on Dec. 1st, 1918, aged 33 years.

At School he was an excellent pupil, most conscientious and obedient, always anxious to do his duty and make the best use of his opportunities.

He volunteered for the Army in November, 1915, and joined the colours in March, 1916. He served in the Bedfordshire Regiment, and subsequently in the Middlesex Regiment. After this he went to France in October, 1917, and spent eight months there. Never of robust constitution, he was frequently in hospital, but throughout he tackled his duties with high courage and faith. He was invalided in June, 1918, with trench fever, and spent a long period in Bradford War Hospital. Subsequently he was sent to Prees Heath (Shropshire), where he contracted pneumonia, from which he died after twelve days' illness.

Lce.-Cpl. Weyer was married in June, 1917, and leaves a widow, but no child.

LIEUT. JOHN FREDERICK HOWSON, Royal Field Artillery, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Howson of Buckden Wood, Hunts, we regret to learn, died in a War Hospital in Bombay, on Oct. 18th, 1918, aged 27. Many of the boarders at Surrey Street, and our early days at St. Giles' House, will remember Jack Howson and his brother Pat, who, I believe, is a prisoner of war in Germany. As young boys they were real pickles, but thoroughly good natured and kind hearted, and were very popular. After leaving St. Giles', Jack went to Bedford Grammar School and Oundle. He was in South Africa when war broke out, and immediately joined a South African Regiment, returning to England in the following spring, when he obtained a commission in the Motor Machine Guns, eventually being transferred to the R.F.A. In the autumn of 1915 Lieut. Howson went to France, and saw much active service, going through the Somme offensive of 1916, and being badly gassed in the late autumn. In the spring of this year he was sent to Mesopotamia. It was hoped the voyage would be beneficial, but the climate proved too trying, and after repeated attacks of fever he died in Bombay.

SERGT. FRANK CLARENCE SELF of the King's Own Royal Regt. Norfolk Yeomanry (12th Norfolks), son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Self of Morningthorpe, was killed in France, on August 19th, 1918. He served in Gallipoli, Egypt, and Palestine, and was wounded at Gaza. He afterwards was transferred to France. In his last action he was wounded in the leg and was then killed by machine-gun fire. He was buried at Vieux Berquin, 9 miles from Hazebrouck.

Writing to his parents, an officer said "Your son was killed leading his platoon into action, which after severe close-handed fighting was gloriously successful, and our company shared no small part of the honour attained. No officer or non-com. who went into the attack with the company came through except one who was wounded."

GUNNER CYRIL EDMUND AUGUST CHENEY of the Royal Horse Artillery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Cheney, Cheney Hill Farm, Long Stratton, died of wounds and fever at the R.A.M.C. Hospital, Denmark Hill, on Oct. 26th, 1918. Cyril entered the High School in September, 1910, our opening term, and remained here over two years, when he left to learn farming. He joined the R.H.A. at Woolwich, in June, 1917, and went to France in March, 1918. He was wounded in the head and thigh while fighting between St. Quentin and Cambrai, and was operated on in Rouen Hospital. He was brought to England in October and died, as stated, from poison in his wounds and congestion of the lungs. It is said of him that he was loved and respected by all who came in contact with him.

2ND-LIEUTENANT LESLIE ARNOLD BEAVER of the Lincolnshire Regiment, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Beaver of Reepham, was killed in action in France, on Sept. 18th, 1918, aged 21 years. From information received it seems that Leslie had been wounded and was walking back to the casualty clearing station, when he was met by machine-gun fire and killed instantly. It is some comfort to his relatives and friends to know that he did not suffer long. His elder brother, Heslop, was fighting in the same locality a little later, and after diligent search came across his grave at the bottom of a shell hole. Leslie was the youngest of the three brothers, who were all my pupils, and they were three of the very nicest boys I ever had under my charge. All joined the army, as privates, and all by faithful and devoted service deservedly won the King's commission. Rex, the eldest and perhaps the best-known of the three, as he lived on at St. Giles' House for years after leaving school, is still in Palestine in charge of a Labour Corps, and Heslop is with his regiment in France. Leslie, the youngest, has gone to receive the highest commission of all in the great and eternal host of the good and true, who serve the King of Kings.

ERNEST ALBOROUGH MACKLEY, L.D.S. Eng., the eldest son of Mr. T. J. Mackley, Park Lane, Norwich, died, on the 28th October, 1918, of pneumonia after influenza, at his residence Vermont Dean Park, Bournemouth. Although not on actual military service Ernest was doing yeoman work at home and I feel I must include him in this list. He was one of my oldest and earliest pupils and I have very pleasant recollections of him as a thoroughly kind-hearted, generous, and courteous boy of the best English type and I was proud to see him from time to time and to hear what fine progress he had made in his profession, and also to find he was just as popular as a man, as he had been as a boy.

Roll of Honour.

"O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints, who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold."

Cadet Topics.

IN another column will be found an account of the Camp Contingent, and of the excellent way in which they acquitted themselves.

We were extremely sorry to lose H. G. Arnold, our efficient Sergt.-Major. He was the very man for the post he filled. We look forward to seeing him on parade with us again, though in a different capacity, for just after he left us in October his good work earned for him the King's Commission.

The term has been a very busy one for all concerned. Prior to Oct. 30th we were working at high pressure, seizing every opportunity for parade purposes so as to win, if possible, a second time, the Lucas-Tooth Competition.

It was splendid to witness the keenness of the Cadets. Every day saw them hard at work putting the finishing touches at all points to their work.

Wednesday, Oct. 30th, was the date fixed for the visit of the Inspecting Officers, and as it drew near, excitement grew apace. It would be difficult to speak too highly of the zeal and heartiness with which every member of the Corps threw himself into the arduous work preparatory to the event. To the individual effort of every cadet, no less than to the untiring energy of our splendid N.C.O.'s, final success was due.

On the day of the Inspection the Company was drawn up in close column of platoons on the School lawn. As the Inspecting Officers came upon the scene, the general salute was given. When the ranks and the band had been inspected, the Company marched past. Then followed the shooting, signalling, and drill.

Sergts Everett and Smith were called out to drill their platoons, which they did very creditably. Sergt. Smith especially making full use of his smart word of command.

In the Swedish Drill, which concluded the Inspection, our Sergt.-Major, R. Anderson, excelled himself, and was deservedly complimented by the Inspecting Officers upon his smartness and capability. Here let me say it was no easy position to which Anderson was promoted, consequent upon the departure of Sergt.-Major H. G. Arnold. He had but a brief three weeks in which to become acquainted with his new duties; how well he mastered them is evident from the praise he won. We are proud of him.

Our Instructors, Sergt. Price and Corpl. Codman, worked hard and helped in no small measure towards success.

I am sure every Cadet will agree with me when I say that our success in winning, for a second time, the Lucas-Tooth Competition, was very largely due to Lieutenant J. H. Chapman, who is attached to his old School Corps, and coming to us at the eleventh hour, threw himself with energy, and an enthusiasm which was contagious, into the work of training for the event.

Under his critical eye the men worked like Trojans, and drilled like Guardsmen. The smoothly-running programme on the day of inspection was his achievement.

The following report was received from the Norfolk Territorial Force Association:—

From the Secretary,
Norfolk County T.F. Association,
21, Tombland, Norwich,
NOVEMBER 9th, 1918.

Sir,—The Report of the Board of Examination on your entry for the Lucas-Tooth Competition was considered by my Association this day, and I was instructed to state how pleased they were with the care and attention given to the Cadets by all concerned.

The Company under your command has been recommended for the Grant of £10 to the Corps, and Medals to those competing; also additional ribbon to be worn as a shoulder decoration.

The result of the Examination was as follows:—

General Turn-out ...	Very good.
Steadiness on Parade ...	Excellent.
Swedish Drill ...	Very good.
Drill ...	Good.
Signalling ...	Good.
Shooting ...	Very good.
Attendance ...	95 per cent. very good.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

F. GREHAN, Major,

Secretary Norfolk County T.F. Association.

The Officer Commanding,
High School Cadet Corps,
St. Giles',
Norwich.

We have joined on two occasions this term the Cadet Norfolk Artillery on Church Parades.

The first parade, held on Oct. 20th, was to St. Andrew's Church; the second, on Nov. 24th, to St. Philip's Church, Heigham. Both parades were well attended and keenly appreciated.

The parade, however, which every Cadet who took part in it will long remember was that held on Sunday, Nov. 17th, when, in conjunction with representatives of other local Corps, we marched to the Cathedral to join with a congregation, numbering 8,000, in thanksgiving for the cessation of hostilities.

Bantams as yet unborn will listen in the years to come whilst their fathers tell them of this memorable, this historic, parade in which they were privileged to take part. At the request of Colonel Currie, the Colonel Commandant of all the Norfolk Cadets, our Bugle Band headed the Norwich Cadets in this important and memorable parade, and were afterwards thanked and congratulated by the Colonel for their smart and efficient performance.

Just a word about the Band. We are justly proud of our Band. Under the able and enthusiastic leadership of Drum-Major Thurston, steady progress has been maintained, and both drummers and buglers are to be congratulated upon the high level of attainment they have reached.

Captain Tench has most generously presented them with a silver baton—a beautiful thing—which, dexterously wielded by the Drum-Major, gives the finishing touch to the smartness of their turn-out.

That most popular officer of ours, Lieutenant Sennitt, has backed us up splendidly right through. He has attended many parades this term, often at great inconvenience to himself, but always cheerfully, putting the interests of the corps foremost. I owe him a great deal for invaluable advice and assistance, for which I take this opportunity of thanking him sincerely.

Now as regards the future. The Corps has a splendid record behind it. It has the support of an enthusiastic Commandant, who gives it ungrudgingly of his time and thought. There is much to be done in the coming year. The Lucas-Tooth Competition will in all probability take place much earlier than it has in the past—and we must win it again, and the Walton Shield, too.

We are pleased to have enrolled a good number of recruits—but we want more. Have you forgotten the promise of a Brass Band?

We want 1919 to be a year of fresh records and still greater achievement.

T. B. WEBBER,

Lieutenant and (Acting) Quartermaster.

N.B.—The Corps is proud in having two of its original officers in the persons of Captain E. J. Trench and Captain and Quartermaster E. T. W. Ferris on active service in France—the former in the Royal Sussex Regiment, and the latter in the British Ambulance Corps. We were glad to give Captain Ferris a hearty send-off early in the term, and delighted a little later to welcome Captain Trench on his leave from France, and he spent a good deal of it in our company, much to our sincere appreciation of his attachment to the School and the Corps. We hope soon to see these, our popular officers and friends, home again on their discharge from the Army, devoting their energies to civilian duties, and their spare time in enthusiastic support and assistance of our Corps. Till then they have our very best wishes for their continued happiness and well-being.

J. GEO. CHAPMAN,

O.C. and Captain.

Marlborough Cadet and O.T.C. Camp.

IT was a glorious morning when the contingent of the Norwich High School Cadet Corps, under the command of Capt. E. T. W. Ferris and 2nd-Lieut. Sennitt, set out for Marlborough to take part in the annual fortnight's training of the Cadet and O.T.C. Corps of the leading Public Secondary Schools in England. This year's Camp was one of the most successful that has ever been held. There were three things responsible for its success, viz., the fine weather, the enthusiasm of the Cadets, and the luck in having such a fine Camp Commandant as Major Gallagher.

There were sixty-six schools represented, comprising roughly just over 2,000 cadets.

One of the outstanding features of the Camp was the success of our School Cadet Corps, because it was such a small contingent, as compared with the representatives of other schools. During the second week, the Corps had the honour of being selected as the Quarter-guard of the day on which General Slater and his Colonel, O.C. Southern Command and his Staff inspected the Camp. It was a great day for the boys, and they took full advantage of the glorious opportunity.

General Slater was so delighted with the turn out of the Quarter-guard, that he personally congratulated them and said that he would have them specially mentioned in the Southern Command Orders.

This was but the beginning of still greater achievements. The final stages of the Camp included the competition for the Walton Shield. There was a very keen contest for this trophy, which is the principal one of the many presented at Camp, and it was finally secured by our Corps.

On Saturday, August 10th, the boys left Camp feeling justly proud of themselves. The following are a few of many letters received by the Headmaster congratulating the Corps on their brilliant success:—

"THE WALTON SHIELD."

This Shield was won by a Section of the Norwich Contingent.

It gives me the greatest pleasure in recording my appreciation of the manner in which this Section carried off this Shield.

Their Section Commander commanded them. His knowledge was good. His attitude and bearing good. His word of command good. He had confidence and was even-tempered. His powers of observation were good, and he was therefore able to improve faults as the competition progressed. RESULT—GOOD DISCIPLINE, GOOD DRILL,—AND THE SHIELD.

Their "Laying down of Kits" and their lines were an example to the best trained troops.

Their "esprit de corps" was very prominent, and it was quite apparent they intended to sustain the traditions and good reputation of the Regiment they have the honour of belonging to.

(Signed) A. E. GALLAGHER, Major,
Commandant,
Public Secondary Schools Camp.

Marlborough,
10th August, 1918.

From the Secretary,
Norfolk County T.F. Association,
21, Tombland, Norwich.

22nd Aug., 1918.

Sir,—At a meeting of my General Purposes Emergency Committee on Saturday, 17th inst., the full report of the visit of the Corps under your command to the Public Secondary Schools' Camp, 27th July to 10th August, 1918, together with the report of the Camp Commandant, was received, and I was instructed to convey to you the congratulations of the Association on the honour won by the Corps in such a searching competition in discipline and drill.

The Association fully appreciates the great efforts made by you, Captain Ferris, and 2nd-Lieutenant Sennitt, of the Corps, and also of Lieutenant J. H. Chapman (Norfolk Regiment), in raising the boys to such a high state of efficiency, which won the Walton Shield and the praise of the General Commanding the Southern District and all other officers who had to deal with them.

I am, sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) F. GREHAN, Major.
Secretary Norfolk County T.F. Association.

Holkham,
Aug. 22nd, 1918.

To the Headmaster,
Norwich High School.

Dear Sir,—I have read in the Eastern Daily Press the splendid account of the Cadets of the Norwich High School. Not only did they win the Walton Shield, but they came out first out of sixty different corps represented on this occasion. I feel sure this will give the greatest satisfaction throughout the county. And, personally, I take this opportunity of thanking you, and congratulating you and all ranks, on bringing much credit to our county.

I remain,
Yours sincerely,
(Signed) LEICESTER.

Correspondence.

Officers' Command Dépôt,
31, South Camp,
Ripon, 6th Sept., 1918.

Dear Mr. Chapman,

I am writing to thank you for the Magazine you so kindly sent to me, but more particularly to tell you how delighted I was to run across you so unexpectedly at Scarborough.

Having met Cannell at this Dépôt, only a week before, we had talked a lot about the Old School and about you. He lent me one of your Magazines, and after reading it, I can assure you that yourself and memories of the pleasant old school days were very much in my thoughts, so you can understand how pleased I was to see you whilst those memories were so fresh. My family leaving East Anglia at the same time as I left school, I have not been able to keep up my associations with the old School as I should have liked. They have always been very near at heart, though more especially since the war started.

One does not realize, when at school, what a really important part one's school-fellows play in a man's life. I have met several fellows, since I have been in the Army, who were at the Old School, and, although they were no particular friends of mine in those days, as soon as we have remembered who the other was, something seems to have drawn us together, some feeling, quite different from the meeting of an ordinary acquaintance.

It was with great admiration that I read of the splendid doings of your Cadet Corps.

It only proves careful and efficient instruction, great keenness, and "esprit de corps" amongst the boys. I hope you will accept my heartiest congratulations.

I have always wished that we had had a Corps at the Old School. Am sure many of us would not only have been more efficient for killing the Hun, but would have left school with a wider and higher sense of Duty and Love of Country.

Although the war is very terrible, for those who have been through it, it has given this, and it is with pride that I read of the Old School instilling this into the boys.

The "Old Boys" are fighting for Right and Justice, and we hope to win through, ere the boys at school to-day are wanted, but we look to them to consolidate and hold what has cost the Old School so much of its best blood.

I trust, after the war, that keenness will remain. Every lad cannot be a good scholar, but he can be a good soldier. My experience is, that many of the dullest are the most trustworthy.

When I am in Norwich I shall be delighted to have a look round the School and see the Cadet Corps in training.

Trusting yourself and Mrs. Chapman are quite well, with kindest regards,

Yours very sincerely,

G. NORMAN WAITE, Lt.

Letter from Captain E. T. W. Ferris.

Section Sanitaire Anglaise, No. 4,
Convoie Automobile,

B.C.M.,
Paris, 3/11/18.

Dear Mr. Chapman,

I daresay you will wonder why I have not written you before, but the fact is one's time is so monopolised out here that it is quite a difficult job to attend to correspondence.

I arrived here quite safely, and since my arrival I have travelled about a great deal, and have done one spell of front-line work, which I can assure you was far from pleasant.

At present we have returned to civilization, and are in rest billets whilst our cars are having their broken springs and bent axles, etc., put right for the next spell of duty.

The work, as a whole, is very interesting, but the front line work is very bad.

I had one nasty experience when on outpost duty with the cars one night. We were just thinking of turning in until wanted when the Boche began sending over heavies and gas shells. Splinters were flying all over the place, and I got a few sniffs of gas, which burned the skin off my mouth and throat, and made my eyes stream; but beyond that I took no harm, and am now pretty well myself again. I think the most horrible experience a man can have is driving in the dark without lights, along tracks and roads, and over fields studded with shell holes, and littered with dead horses, smashed gun carriages, and other debris of war.

However, I am quite safe and doing very well, and am sure I shall return very much the better for my experience.

You will be pleased to hear that the work of the section has earned it the Croix de Guerre, and the citation, a copy of which I shall bring home, is one to be proud of in every sense of the word.

I hope the Corps will pull the Lucas-Tooth off again. Please convey my kindest regards to the Cadets, and tell them that is the least I expect of them. I am longing to return to my Cadet duties again, and very often think of the good old times, and anticipate with every feeling of pleasure the ties to come in the future.

I will write again soon, and let you know how things are going.

With kindest regards to you, Mrs. Chapman, and all at St. Giles' House,

I remain,

Yours sincerely,

TED.

Letter from Lieut. J. J. Statham.

156 Siege Battery, R.G.A.,
B.E.F., France.
21/11/18.

Dear Mr. Chapman,

I thank you for sending me the "School Magazine," which I found very interesting. As you see, I am still in France, and although hostilities have ceased, and we hope will not be resumed, there is not much chance of getting away for some considerable time. Then, again, as I am a Regular, I suppose that very soon I shall be required for service abroad to relieve the Territorials and "duration of war" men. What a great relief it must be to you all at home that Prussianism is at last broken. You have not seen the system as we have here. Coming into villages and towns, during the advance, that have been under enemy rule for over four years, we realise it fully. I cannot describe it properly in a letter. I can say I know how thankful the French inhabitants are at being released.

It has been very hard work, out night and day, firing our guns at all hours. Forward observation duty, going forward to select new positions, and the whole time under heavy shell fire, and very often bombed by enemy aircraft. What I have objected to more than anything else is gas shelling. I do not like it at all. However, there is no doubt the enemy has had a far worse time. Thank God, it is all over, and that some of us have come out whole.

I have managed to collect a few souvenirs, but whether I shall be able to get them home is another thing. I shall try. I have a German Mauser rifle and bayonet which, if I can get home, I should like to give to you; but more of that anon.

Just now, while our Adjutant is on leave, I am Acting Adjutant and gaining more experience, which may prove useful later on to me.

My youngest brother, Corpl. in R.E. Signals, is home wounded. He is being presented with his Military Medal and bar by the King. He was also recommended for the D.C.M. I hope he gets it.

I shall try and come to Norwich the next time I am home, and shall certainly pay another visit to the School. Will you kindly remember me to Mr. Arnold, and also to the other Masters and Mistresses I met in May.

I must now close, as it is some way past midnight, so with kind regards, I remain, Yours very sincerely and fraternally.

J. J. STATHAM.

P.S.—I have also enclosed a pair of German soldier's shoulder-straps.

Football.

WE began our Football Season with the usual opening games, the First XI. v. the Rest and the Defence v. Attack. Both games were fought very keenly and each ended in a draw—the first one 1-1, the second 2-2.

Although a good number of matches had been arranged with several local clubs for this Term, we have not been able to carry out our full programme owing to influenza on either side and other causes. Three fixtures were scratched by our opponents and we have been obliged to cancel the others except one, the match against the Y.M.C.A. (Juniors), which was played on October 3rd, on our ground at Eaton Park, and we thoroughly deserved the victory over our opponents by 2 goals to nil.

Much enthusiasm and interest in the practice games have been shown by those few boys who have been regular at Eaton Park, but it is regrettable that a large percentage of the boys, and especially day-boys, do not attend regularly at the practice games, thus missing the best physical training that a youth can ever find.

An account of the House matches played, up to date, is given elsewhere by the Captain of each House.

F. V. S. L.

Round the Houses.

Cheltenham.

WE must consider ourselves somewhat fortunate to be second in the House Football League for the half-season. Our eleven is generally recognised as the weakest in the competition, but they make up for that by perseverance.

Sinclair is the mainstay of the eleven whilst G. Wilson, P. Smith, Pike, and Riches are invaluable in their respective positions.

Our first encounter was with Winchester, whom we defeated by three goals to one, Wilson and Pike each claiming a goal.

We then met Marlborough, with whom we shared half a dozen goals equally, although this result somewhat flattered us. Sinclair played a sterling game at back and was mainly responsible for our success. The other back was a new member of the eleven, named Riches, who plays a good game in that position.

The fifth, sixth, and eighth places in the Rifle Competition for Lord Suffield's Silver Cup were secured by Arthur Sinclair, George Fisher, and Robert A. Pinchen for our House. All made very creditable scores, being only a few points behind the winners.

G. FISHER,

Captain.

P.S.—Our Captain is too modest to mention his own performances. He has played finely at football and was a prominent member of the Cadet Section that won the Walton Shield.

Harrow.

Harrow opened the football season with a match against Marlborough. The first half was spoilt, to a great extent, by the wind, but towards the end the game improved and we obtained three goals whilst our opponents scored one. Robertson and Wilson being our scorers.

Our next match was against Winchester and we again were successful, securing a victory by two goals to nil. Val Aldiss, our goal-keeper, played a very good game, saving some very hot shots. Our first goal was scored by Wilson during the first half, and the next was scored by Whellum before the end.

The last match against Cheltenham was postponed owing to bad weather.

Harrow can well be proud of the "Walton Shield," as six of the winning section were Harrovians. Sgt.-Major Anderson, Sgt. Smith, Cpl. Whellum, Lce.-Cpl. Sennitt, Cadets Aldiss and Church. Of Sgt.-Major Anderson we are especially proud as he was personally congratulated by the Camp Commandant. We also congratulate the Sgt.-Major, Sgt. Smith, and Cpl. Whellum on obtaining recent promotion.

Our House has had the good fortune to supply the first winner in the competition for the handsome Silver Cup, presented by the President, Lord Suffield, to the School Miniature Rifle Club. Martin C. Willmott was the winner and the third place in the competition was secured by another Harrovian in Alan D. Aris. Both these boys are to be most heartily congratulated and we are proud of them for bringing honour to our House.

A. G. CHAPMAN.

Captain.

Marlborough.

For various reasons, among which illness occupies an important place, the House matches this term have not been so successful as usual. Despite this, two matches have been played, but Marlborough has not shown to advantage in either. In the first we were most unfortunate, against Harrow, the weather conditions being very unfavourable, having strong winds to battle against; but at half-time we managed to keep the lead by one goal. In the next half our opponents secured two goals, thus winning the match.

The second match we drew with Cheltenham, registering three goals all.

The loss of our House Captain, Horace G. Arnold, has weakened our team considerably. He gained a Scholarship of £50 a year for three years at the Royal College of Science, London, and at the commencement of the term, left to take up studies there. The House Master and all members of the House offer him their hearty congratulations and wish him the best of luck. Our late Captain also gained for us credit in another sphere. At the Marlborough Camp, Sgt.-Major Arnold was mentioned as having the best laid-out kit in the whole camp of 2000 cadets. He is a 2nd-Lieut. in our Cadet Corps.

Before concluding we must compliment R. A. Clare for his fine play at back, and also wish him and other Marlburians every success in the Cambridge Local Exams. just commencing.

We must also heartily congratulate Russell A. Wright for putting up such a good fight in the Competition for Lord Suffield's Silver Cup, as he came second in the Competition, being only one point behind the winner.

C. S. LITTLE,

Sub-Captain.

Winchester.

Winchester, after doing great things in the Cricket Season, has not been so successful in the House Football Matches played this term. There were two matches played, the third being postponed on several occasions on account of illness and unsuitable weather.

Our first match against Cheltenham was spoilt to a certain extent by a strong wind which blew down the pitch. Our opponents, with the wind in their favour, notched three goals in the first half, against which we could only reply with one in the second half.

Playing Harrow a few weeks after, we had a most enjoyable game, the two goals scored against us both being obtained in the last quarter of an hour. The score at the finish was two to nil in their favour, and another defeat was credited to us. May it be the last, at any rate, of this season. Qui vivra, verra.

Our House was fairly well represented in the contingent that went to Marlboro' Camp last August, but unfortunately only one of its members was in the section that won such honour for the corps by its capture of the Walton Shield.

Roy Randell made a very good show in the Minature Rifle Competition for the handsome Silver Cup, presented by Lord Suffield, as he took the fourth place in the competition, being only five points behind the winner. We wish this very promising young shot success in the future Competitions.

L. W. EVERETT,

Captain.
