

NEWS OF OLD GIRLS AND FORMER MISTRESSES.

May Hird is helping with the arrangements for the wounded and the soldiers at Buxton. They have there over a hundred British and Belgian wounded in the General Hospital, and forty-eight Belgians in the Red Cross Hospital; they have also a thousand recruits stationed there. They have hot suppers at night for the troops, and also provide games, writing materials, and a piano.

Ruth Bailey is very busy with home duties and with Red Cross work in North Staffordshire. She has four brothers serving with the colours; and with some friends, she is also helping with the provision of evening classes for younger lads in the Potteries.
