

The Cuthbertian

Vol xix

December 1914

No 6

EDITORIAL.

"It never rains but it pours."

HIS is truly a melancholy opening, but we have good reason to be despondent. The beginning of the term saw our numbers sadly reduced by the loss of four much-respected masters and many an old comrade, and now the end of this woeful term is marked by the loss of our Headmaster, who is going to Bloxham. Since he has been here he has so endeared himself to the hearts of all that his departure comes as a deep and poignant grief to every member of the School, for no one has been here so short a time that he has not come under the spell of his wise and kindly rule. His loss deprives the School not only of a capable Headmaster but also of a true friend. Fortunate Bloxham! we cannot help but grudge it its inestimable gain. But it is useless to dwell upon the subject, for our poor words are quite inadequate to express the sorrow of the School.

. . . . .

Once more we would remind our readers that England is still at war with a certain barbarian tribe on the Continent, and that a large number of O.C.s are serving in the army. Every day we receive letters from them—lack of space alone prevents their publication—telling of hair-breadth adventures, how they shaved in cold water and endured hardships even worse than this. Nevertheless they remain undaunted, for they realise that the terrors of war must be borne with fortitude. No doubt next term will see their numbers greatly increased, and to this end the Corps has put in some very useful training this term. The recruits have improved to such an extent that they are almost proficient enough to fall in with the rest of the company, and no doubt if questioned upon the subject their opinion of their own efficiency would prove even more flattering than ours. Meanwhile, experience and the officers have done much for the rest of the Corps, and platoons and their movements no longer puzzle its members.

Football this term has been entirely successful, and we heartily congratulate both XI.s. The 1st, in particular, has had a wonderful season, for they have suffered defeat at the hands of no team on the fixture card, and they have shared victory with only one, Fulwood A. Their success is the more astonishing when it is remembered that they lost the services of two valuable men, L. S. Winn and C. Mackrell, who were injured during the term. The 2nd XI. has had less chance of distinction, for there are only four matches upon their fixture card, and at present we know the results of only three, whilst the other is on the knees of the gods and the feet of the 2nd XI. They have only lost one match out of the three, and their victory over Retford was, to say the least, decisive, for the score was 14—1. It is rumoured that nothing but the monotony of scoring prevented the 2nd XI. forwards from gaining still further laurels.

The Competition for the Dormitory Football Cup produced some keen matches, two of which were drawn, and it was only after three hard games that the Lion carried off the trophy. Surely no dormitory was ever more unfortunate than the Crown, for they had to play two matches in both the semi-finals and finals, and even then their efforts were fruitless.

As we remarked in our last number, there will be no Shakespearian play produced this term, owing to lack of funds. However, a substitute has been provided by "Pygmalion and Galatea," which will, we are confident, prove as interesting as any play of the immortal bard.

We notice, with regret, the inactivity of the Union Society this term. The Debating Society has certainly evinced some vitality, but what of the Chess Club? Whilst ardent orators have poured forth their gushing eloquence upon the questions of the day the king and his knights have wiled away the time in idleness.

In conclusion, we would wish our readers a right merry Christmas, and they will, no doubt, join in that toast, a sometime favourite of the Germans: "Hoch am Tag!" the "Day" being the 18th of December.

FOOTBALL.

FIRST ELEVEN MATCHES.

Sheffield University "A."

The visitors had not a very strong or even a full side, and we should have won much more easily than we did. The play of our forwards was ragged and disappointing. There was very little combination to be seen at all, and wild kicking took the place of any attempts to pass. At half-time the score was only 2—1 in our favour, and at the beginning of the second half the visitors pressed for some time. The defence proved sound however, and matters were made safe by a splendid run by Barker, who added a third goal towards the end.

Team.—A. C. P. Stephenson (goal), C. Mackrell, W. G. Hohenbocken (backs), G. C. Rogerson, J. W. Lissett, C. B. Rees (half-backs), F. G. Sinkinson, C. K. Kelk, J. Barker, A. Dunne, A. Williamson (forwards).

Notts. High School.

This match was played on the 14th of November, and proved an easy victory for the First XI. The visitors came late, and before the game came to an end, it was almost dark. Unfortunately C. Mackrell injured his knee, which, it will be remembered, troubled him last season. However, the forwards continued to score, and at the conclusion, the score was 7—2 in our favour.

Team.—A. C. P. Stephenson, C. Mackrell, W. G. Hohenbocken, C. B. R. Rees, J. W. Lissett, G. C. Rogerson, F. G. Sinkinson, C. K. Kelk, J. Barker, A. Dunne, A. Williamson.

Notts. High School.

Played at Nottingham on December 2nd. There was a strong wind blowing, but some excellent football was seen in spite of difficulties. Notts. scored first with what appeared a doubtful goal, and we replied with two goals in quick succession. The play after the first quarter of the game was very one-sided, and our halves and forwards had matters all their own way. Goals were scored with great regularity, and the final score was 10—1 in our favour. The forwards were distinctly good, making for goal always, and shooting on every opportunity. The defence too was very sound, and did all its work very well. The halves were enabled to spend most of their time attacking, and completely dominated the home forwards.

Team.—Stepherson (goal), Bridge and Hohenbocken (backs), Rees, Lissett, and Rogerson (half-backs), Sinkinson, Kelk, J. Barker, Dixon, and A. Williamson (forwards).

SECOND ELEVEN MATCH.

Mansfield.

The Mansfield team was rather small, and this, no doubt, accounted for their signal defeat. Their goalkeeper played an excellent game in spite of his small stature, but was unable to keep out the shots of our forwards. It would be useless to mention the share of the score that fell to each member of the Second XI.; it is sufficient to remark the score, 13—0!

Team.—C. Piggford, G. Coates, H. H. C. L'Amie, C. Wragg, G. M. Walton, P. Bapty, R. S. Johnson, H. L. Kendall, E. A. Wallis, C. Kelk, G. Matthews.

DORMITORY MATCHES.

Crown v. Fleur-de-Lys.

The first of the Dormitory matches was played in a gale on Monday, November 9th, amidst the usual excitement, which was intensified owing to the draw 1—1, the re-play taking place on the following day. Every-one expected the Fleur-de-Lys to win, as their form on paper seemed to assure them of victory. But Dormitory matches have a knack of upsetting the prophets, and this game proved a case in point. The victory of the Crown shews too that it is perhaps better to have a fair "all-round" team than to have several "stars"—and a tail.

On the first day the Crown scored through Matthews, and Bapty equalized for Fleur-de-Lys. On the re-play, after extra time, Light scored a good goal for the Crown, and their opponents, though pressing hard, failed to score.

For the winners, Bridge and Stephenson played excellently, Jardine in goal made some good saves, and the forward line as a whole worked hard. On the losing side Steemson in goal, Mackrell (back), Rees (half), Dixon and Kelk (forwards), played a very good game.

The match was notable for the amount of—shall we say vigorous play!! The teams were:

Crown.—Jardine, Coates max, Bridge, Rogerson, Stephenson, Brookes, Sinkinson, Longley, Harland, Light, Matthews.

Fleur-de-Lys.—Steemson, Mackrell, Palmer, Richardson, Rees, Linton, Bapty, Dixon, Kelk, Dunne, Goodreid.

Cross v. Lion.

This match was played on November 16th, a bitterly cold day, the snow of the previous day still lingering in places. Some fine rain fell at half-time, but otherwise the day was fine.

The game proved a much more even contest than was expected, for, though the Lion team was certainly the stronger, it was not arranged to the best advantage. The first ten minutes saw the Lion secure their first goal, but the scores were speedily equalized by C. A. Hall rushing a goal through for the Cross. Half-time found the Lion leading by 2—1, and their victory was made certain by the addition of another goal by G. Barker. The Cross made several efforts after this to press the Lion, but, though E. H. Barrit scored one more goal for them, they were unequal to the task, and were obliged to leave victory in the hands of the Lion.

Cross.—D. Gifford, W. H. Calton, W. G. Hohenbocken, J. W. Holbrook, H. St. C. L'Amie, P. H. Johnson, R. S. Johnson, T. G. S. Hall, C. A. Hall, E. H. Barrit, K. W. White.

Lion.—C. Piggford, B. Macturk, J. W. Lissett, C. Wragg, G. M. Walton, W. G. M. Lewis, H. Ashburner, S. L. Kendall, G. Barker, A. E. Wallis, A. Williamson.

Lion v. Crown.

November 26th. The first game of the final Dormitory match proved very exciting, but was, unfortunately, marred by rather a strong S.W. wind.

Light scored for the Crown during the first two minutes, and during the whole of the first half, the Crown, aided somewhat by the wind, pressed continually, but the Lion defence was strong, and Lissett saved the situation time and again.

During the second half, the Crown were kept busy defending their own goal, and it was only thanks to Jardine that the Lion did not score sooner; he made some brilliant saves and played an excellent game throughout. The Lion left was strong, but the Crown defence was well able to cope with it.

Victory seemed safely in the hands of the Crown, when in the last minute, Barker scored for the Lion, and the match was drawn.

Crown.—G. O. Jardine, P. Bridge, G. Coates, G. C. Rogerson, A. C. P. Stephenson, P. Brookes, F. G. Sinkenson, P. Longley, E. Harland, E. Light, G. M. Matthews.

Lion.—C. G. Piggford, C. Wragg, J. W. Lissett, M. Mudie, G. M. Walton, C. Swaby, P. Ashburner, G. Kendal, J. Barker, A. E. Wallis, A. Williamson.

Crown v. Lion (re-play).

Great excitement was felt about the result of this match, for the Lion and Crown teams had already met and were found to be even. The ill-luck which has attended the Crown throughout the season did not desert them. In the first half they chose to kick against the wind, and this, during the second half, entirely subsided. Judicious alterations in the Lion team, both as to its personnel and arrangement, accounted for this victory, which they secured with ease. In spite of their splendid efforts, the Crown were unable to score, and thus, at the eleventh hour, after playing four hardly-contested games, the Cup was snatched almost from their very hands.

Crown.—G. C. Jardine, P. Bridge, G. Coates, G. C. Rogerson, A. C. P. Stephenson, P. Brookes, F. G. Sinkinson, P. R. A. Longley, E. R. Harland, G. N. Light, G. M. Matthews.

Lion.—C. G. Piggford, J. W. Lissett, C. Wragg, G. Mudie, G. M. Walton, R. H. Macturk, H. Ashburner, H. L. Kendall, J. Barker, A. E. Wallis, A. Williamson.

FOOTBALL CHARACTERS.

J. W. Lissett, Capt. (centre-half). A very keen captain. Dangerous in attack, but liable sometimes to neglect the defence. Passes and tackles well, and is useful in any position.

**C. B. R. Rees* (right-half). Passes very well, but is a bit slow. Can also play forward.

**A. Williamson* (left-outside). Very fast and an excellent shot. Uses his head well and has good control over the ball.

**A. C. P. Stephenson* (goal). Is a good goalkeeper, but occasionally fails to gather the ball. Is also a good half.

**L. S. Winn* (left-half). A keen and hard-working half. Should learn to pass better.

**J. Barker* (centre-forward). A dashing forward, but has not much control over the ball.

**W. G. Hohenbocken* (left-back). Tackles and uses his head well. Is a strong kick, but must learn to keep the ball down.

†W. F. T. Dixon (left-inside). Dribbles and passes well, but cannot shoot.

†C. Mackrell (right-back). Tackles and uses his head well, but is rather slow. Is erratic in his kicking.

†F. G. Sinkinson (right-outside). Fast, with good control of the ball. Centres too far in front, and is rather small.

†C. Kelk (right-inside). A hard-working forward, but with little control over the ball. Can shoot fairly well.

SECOND ELEVEN.

†G. C. Rogerson, Capt. (centre-half). A fair half, but rather slow. Should learn to use his head.

†P. Bridge (right-back). Tackles well and kicks well with both feet.

†C. Wragg (right-half). A greatly improved half. Passes and marks his man well.

†G. M. Walton (left-half). Hard-working half, but has little control over the ball.

G. C. Piggford (goal). An erratic goal-keeper, owing to carelessness. Has not improved.

A. Dunne (left-inside). Cannot pass or combine with the other forwards. A fair shot with his left foot.

G. D. Coates (left-back). A strong kick, but cannot use his right foot.

G. E. Wallis (centre-forward). Dribbles and passes well. Should learn to keep on-side.

G. M. Matthews (left-outside). Fairly fast, but rather small. Hardly strong enough to centre.

H. Kendall (right-inside). A clever and keen forward. Can use his head well.

C. A. Hall (right-outside). Is fairly fast, but has no control over the ball.

* First Eleven Colourman. † Second Eleven Colourman.

CHAPEL NOTES.

Everybody of course at the beginning of term missed the familiar face of the Rev. B. M. Maynard, who had been Chaplain for more than four years. We wish him God-speed in his new work in India, and we are very thankful for his life and teaching amongst us. The term has been as usual as far as the Chapel goes. The Statute Sermon on the Holy Angels was preached by the new Chaplain, while Fr. Hebert, of Kelham, preached the Sermon on the Faithful Departed.

We had the pleasure of a visit from Fr. Kemp, who interested us all with his talk about "Our" Mission in his parish at Manchester. The Headmaster preached the Statute Sermon on "Foreign Missions." The usual Intercessions have been held on Monday evenings, and we are glad to say have been well attended, and we feel sure that many faithful prayers have reached the Throne of Grace for our School, our Mission, and for O.C.'s serving with H.M. Forces on land and sea.

A voluntary Celebration has been held on Tuesdays at 7 a.m. for O.C.'s serving with H.M. Forces, and another at the same time on Saturdays for those who have died in the war.

The Confirmation Classes have been started, and at present there are about 30 candidates. Will all our readers pray for them and for the Chaplain who is preparing them.

THE SCOUTS.

The term opened with a thrill of excitement. The War! How keen it made us all. Unfortunately for us, very soon we had to part with our Scout Master, Mr. Rew, who obtained a Commission in the Army Service Corps. Our best wishes and prayers will go with him as he serves his King and Country in a higher branch of the Service. Our Assistant Scout Master, Mr. Butler has accepted a Commission in the O.T.C., and so it fell to the lot of the Chaplain to do what he could to keep the Scouts together, though he confesses to a sad ignorance of Scoutcraft. However, the Scouts have rallied round him well, and with the aid of his excellent Patrol Leaders a pleasant term has been spent—divided up between Drill and Scouting games. Let us all go home for a happy Christmas, determined to come back and do our best to become efficient as Scouts, so that we may later be of even greater service in the O.T.C.

THE DEBATING SOCIETY.

The Debating Society has been well supported this term and several interesting debates have been held, whilst many members have become regular speakers. The motion at the most interesting debate was "That Life in the Time of Elizabeth was preferable to Life at the Present Day." The proposer, C. H. Steemson, spoke of the better social conditions which prevailed in Elizabeth's reign, when there were no big industries, no capitalists, and no slums. He upheld the sports of the period as examples of true sport, in which "professionalism" had no place. W. T. Barker opposed the motion. He maintained that the social conditions of to-day were better than those of the 16th century. He said that the number of rebellions which took place in Elizabeth's reign proved that the people were not contented. He mentioned travelling facilities, artificial light, and water-supply as advantages of modern life. The seconder of the proposition, H. St. C. L'Amie, dwelt upon the interesting and romantic character of Elizabeth's reign. He said that to-day the people of England are always discontented, and in opposition to rebellions of the Tudor period he held out present day strikes. C. W. Anderson seconded the opposition, and pointed out that, by the advance made in medical science, much pain and suffering, which the Elizabethan had to bear, was now-a-days prevented. N. S. Hawthorne who spoke next, said that since the Elizabethan knew nothing of modern day comforts in travelling and the like, he was not discontented because he could not have them. W. G. Hohenbocken, in his maiden speech, then spoke on behalf the opposition. He pointed out that to-day a man could have Justice, but in the 16th century a fair trial was by no means easy to obtain. L. Ll. M. Evans spoke of the chivalry of the period. He called to mind the romantic picture of the young Raleigh throwing his cloak on a muddy patch of road, so that the Queen might step across dry-foot. W. F. T. Dixon replied that to-day there was no need of Raleighs, since the roads were kept clean. Other speakers were: for the motion, K. U. White, C. Stent, J. I. Wood; against the motion, B. Smith, The motion was won by two votes.

The other Debates held this term were: "That Cremation should be the only method of disposing of Corpses," "That the Present War will be a Benefit to Mankind," "That Country Life is preferable to Town Life."

O.C. NEWS.

The following list is supplementary to the list of O.C.'s serving with H.M. Forces published in our November issue:

|                  |   |      |
|------------------|---|------|
| Armstrong, G. H. | South Notts. Hussars                      | 1910 |
| — Baldock, H.    | 5th East Surrey                           | 1910 |
| — Baldock, M.    | H.M.S. Emperor of India                   | 1910 |
| Bateson, C. G.   | Duke of Wellington's WestRiding Regt. | 1910 |

|                       |  |      |
|-----------------------|--|------|
| Beckett, E. M.        | . Army Ordnance . . . . .  |      |
| Bell, L. M. T.        | . Coldstream Guards . . . . .  | 1908 |
| Berkeley, G.          | . Public Schools Batt. (RoyalSussex)                                     |      |
| Brailsford, W. E.     | . Canadian Contingent . . . . .  |      |
| — Brown, K. C. F.     | . West Yorks. . . . .  | 1908 |
| — Burnett, T. H.      | . H.M.S. Pegasus . . . . .   | 1908 |
| Chamberlain, A. L. L. | . 2nd Canadian Contingent . . . . .  | 1904 |
| Chamberlain, J. B. T. | . 2nd Canadian Contingent . . . . .  |      |
| Clarke, H.            | . Edinburgh Univ. O.T.C. (Sea-forth Highlanders) . . . . .               |      |
| Cowgill, J. S. N.     | . 2nd Canadian Contingent . . . . .  | 1906 |
| — Curtis, S. W.       | . R.F.A. . . . .   | 1906 |
| Ellis, J. R. M.       | . 16th Batt. 72nd SeaforthHighlanders (CanadianContingent) . . . . . |      |
| Francis, D.           | . 4th Lincs. . . . .   | 1908 |
| Francis, V.           | . West Kent Yeomanry . . . . .   |      |
| Goatley, C. R. A.     | . Penang Volunteers, F.M.S. . . . .  |      |
| Hicks, H. C.          | . Public Schools Batt. . . . .   |      |
| — Kitchin, F.         | . H.M.S. Donegal . . . . .   | 1909 |
| — Newton, J. F.       | . Lancs. Field Artillery . . . . .   | 1904 |
| Palliser, J. S.       | . Lancs. and Yorks. . . . .  | 1907 |
| — Pigott, A. M.       | . R.N. Assistant Paymaster . . . . .   | 1910 |
| Porter, H.            | . 32nd Battery R.F.A. . . . .  |      |
| — Porter, W.          | . 13th Cheshires . . . . .   |      |
| Rushton, W. H.        | . Notts. Univ. O.T.C. . . . .  | 1911 |
| Steadman, F.          | . Yorks. Dragoons . . . . .  |      |
| Stevenson, J.         | . 1st Heavy Battery CanadianField Artillery . . . . .                    | 1909 |
| Townsley, B. H.       | . 72nd Seaforths (CanadianContingent) . . . . .                          | 1908 |
| Wright, J. B.         | . 78th Infantry Brigade . . . . .  | 1908 |

Those with — against their names hold Commissions.

C. S. Bott and H. Jacks have received commissions.

H. L. Jackson has been transferred from the Royal Fusiliers to the 1st Motor Machine-gun Battery. He joined the School in 1901.

The following corrections to the former list have been supplied :

Sowby, C. W., 8th Worcesters, not Yeomanry.

Hall, W. H. should read Hall, T. H. (now at Aden).

Neesham, W. O., 2nd S. Lancs., not 7th Lancs.

Parkes, H. P. should read Parker, H. R.

Those O.C.'s who are serving with the Grimsby "Chums" Battalion should have been put down as 11th Lincs., not 6th Lincs.

The following particulars of Lieut. Denny's death have been communicated to us: "He was all through the battle of the Aisne without a scratch. . . . Then the regiment was moved from the trenches there somewhere about October 19th, and he must have reached Ypres about the 22nd. We learnt from a wounded Corporal that they were called off very suddenly on that day to take an important position, and on entering Zonnebeke they found Germans hidden in the houses, which were loopholed, and they had to charge under a perfect hail of bullets. We learnt from another source that he led three charges that day, before he fell, mortally wounded, and won the admiration of everyone. His last words before he fell were: 'Give it them, No. 16.' He went on after he was first hit. They got him to the field hospital and he lingered through one day. We hear from everyone how much he was beloved and valued both by officers and men. The major writes, 'The men would do anything and go anywhere with him.' The colonel was shot through the heart an hour before, and the regiment lost heavily, but they took the position after three days and nights of fighting."

The following letter from W. O. Neesham (at the front) has been communicated to us :

“ I may not go into details of losses and other things—perhaps 'tis as well I mayn't. Never can men have been so severely tried as are we—and our poor unfortunate enemies. (One is bound to pity their rank and file.) Nothing much more terrifying than high explosive, lyddite, and shrapnel shells could, I think, be devised—and the daily, nightly, weekly familiarity with these which we experience does not by any means, I assure you, breed the proverbial contempt, though to be sure those which land at a fairly safe distance are the subject of many a little joke. As you have probably heard, we are all very happy out here, in spite of everything, and very confident of ultimate success. I, thanks to my ability to speak French, have been appointed interpreter to my regiment, so that I do not go into the trenches, or near them, very frequently. In this, I suppose, I am very fortunate, as I stay with the second échelon transport a mile or two behind the firing line. Our sole trouble there is the large number of their ‘Jack Johnsons’ (which you have probably heard of) which reach us. You see, we are generally amongst the artillery, and they are always busy searching for the latter with their big guns—that is, provided they are not occupied in bombarding churches or towns with temporary hospitals in them. ‘Sales cochons, comme les civiles les appellent.’ I am writing as I lie in the straw on the floor of a barn, the walls of which are continually shaken by the detonations of their ‘gros noirs,’ or ‘Jack Johnsons’ as our troops call them, so that I am sure you will overlook any illegibilities in this letter.”

We should be glad to receive any corrections or additions to the foregoing list, and also any other news of interest concerning O.C.s now serving with the forces. We should also be glad if Cuthbertian subscribers could snatch a moment from their overburdened time to drop us a postcard letting us know of changes in their address, as otherwise we can hardly be blamed if their copies go astray.

Wedding: At S. John's Church, Ottawa, Canada, C. P. C. Downman—Miss Alice B. Colwill.

We have had the pleasure of visits this term from S. Rogerson and M. Cuckow.

J. B. M. Walton has joined the Rhodesian Civil Service, and is serving under R. H. Palmer, O.C., in N. Rhodesia.

ANNALS.

We have this term to announce with the deepest regret the departure of our Headmaster, the Rev. R. M. Grier, to take up the same duties at Bloxham. He came to our School, under the Rev. F. A. Hibbert, when it was in its earliest infancy, in the year 1900 to be accurate, and has seen it grow out of its teens and begin to attain its twentieth year. During the whole of his stay he has been identified in the closest possible way with almost every department of school life. He was Dormitory Master of the Head's House, Games Master, and an officer in the Corps from its foundation. In 1905, when the last change of Headmasters took place, he was chosen to succeed and carry on the work of the Rev. F. A. Hibbert. With what success he has carried it on is well known to friends of the School. Under his Headmastership we have seen the Science wing and the Chapel built up, and a great part of the building comprised in the Chapel Cloister; many minor improvements also, too numerous to enumerate, such as Infirmary, Gymnasium, and Tuckshop. We have seen the fees successfully raised, one sure sign of a school's prosperity, and many improvements in the amenities of life in the College. More important than all this, the educational work direct done in the School has, we venture to say, advanced greatly under his care. (We say this with a full sense of the work done by previous Headmasters—in so young a school a want of progress would be a bad sign.) Continuing his predecessor's work in History and English, he has maintained the line of History successes at Cambridge which had been begun by his predecessor. We wish both him and Mrs. Grier the best of success in their new sphere. We are unable yet to announce his successor.

The late Chaplain, the Rev. B. M. Maynard, left us to take up work under the Government in India, and our best wishes go with him in his new work. It is impossible to gauge the work of a chaplain in a Woodard School, especially as his position brings him into touch with every boy and indeed with every person in the College. But we are grateful to him for his earnestness and zeal, and his work in connection with the dedication of Chapel will long be remembered.

The War robbed us after term had begun of the services of Mr. H. H. Rew, who for so long had most successfully organised the Boy Scouts and had supervised the Preparatory Dormitory. Although his work lay chiefly with the smaller boys, he was an indefatigable worker in all departments of the School life. The Chapel, the games and the Play received valuable help from him. He never spared himself in the interests of the School or of others.

CORRECTION.—In the November issue, Vol. XIX., No. 5, p. 120, l. 12, the Rev. H. Dickinson (Chaplain) should read, the Rev. H. Dickinson, M.A., Hatfield Hall, Durham (Chaplain).

G.P.C.—Mr. Smith has taken on the duties of chairman and Mr. Evans of secretary, in succession to Mr. Whitley.

ORDINATIONS.—S. E. W. Rees to be priest (Liverpool) and D. S. Coles to be deacon (Southwell) on the 2nd Sunday in Advent. The Rev. D. S. Coles is now assisting at the Parish Church of Mansfield Woodhouse.

To the list of Prefects mentioned in our November issue should have been added G. C. Rogerson, who is also Prefect of Chapel.

1st XI. Football Colours re-awarded to C. B. R. Rees, A. Williamson, A. C. P. Stephenson; and awarded to L. S. Winn, J. Barker, W. G. Hohenbocken.

2nd XI. Football Colours re-awarded to W. F. T. Dixon, C. Mackrell; and awarded to P. Bridge, G. C. Rogerson, F. G. Sinkinson, G. M. Walton.

Dormitory Colours awarded to G. C. Rogerson, P. Bridge, G. Light, G. O. Jardine, G. M. Matthews, E. R. Harland, P. R. A. Longley, W. G. Hohenbocken, H. S. C. L'Amie, J. Barker, C. Wragg, C. G. Piggford, G. M. Walton, A. E. Wallis.

The Editor acknowledges with thanks the receipt of the following contemporaries, with apologies for any omissions: The Ardingly Annals, The Brigade, The Swan, The S. Benedict's Magazine, The Olavian, The Lancing College Magazine, The Pocklingtonian, The Bloxhamist, The S.S. Quarterly Paper, The Zonnebloem College Magazine, The Cadet, The Hurst Johnian, The Alleynian, The Retford Grammar School Magazine, The Denstonian, The Ellesmerian.

EXAMINATIONS. Higher Certificates, 1914, H. St. C. L'Amie, P. W. Maclagan.

Seniors: G. C. Rogerson (2nd Class), C. H. Steemson (Distinction in History), L. S. S. Winn (3rd Class), P. Brookes, D. J. G. Dixon, M. R. Hull, R. A. Ker, L. W. Kirkby, L. Parkins.

Juniors: A. Williamson (3rd Class), C. Mackrell, L. H. T. Ashburner, W. T. Barker, M. P. Berry, G. D. Coates, B. W. Cotterell, C. E. Furness, F. G. Hancock, L. E. Houghton, J. C. Hutchby, W. E. M. Lewis, R. H. MacTurk, G. E. Sawtell, B. Smith, C. Stent, H. E. Witham, J. I. Wood.

Preliminaries: D. F. Cheetham, H. Clive-Smith, A. Corlett, V. Lacey, P. St. J. Lisle, A. W. Morrison, A. Pallister, A. T. Sharp, S. T. Smith, H. Stevenson, G. St. V. Thackeray, R. C. Wainwright, E. Williamson, L. Williamson, P. A. Armstrong, P. Bapty, E. H. Barritt, J. M. Dronsfield, F. A. Goodreid, F. G. Haagenzen, R. C. Hunter, J. H. Jarvis, R. S. Johnson, P. Lee, P. N. Linton, F. A. J. Longley, C. R. Macnamara, G. M. Matthews, E. W. Norris, W. Pennington, S. G. Price, G. Proude, J. W. Swaby, H. Towler, R. M. Walton, C. Wragg.

All MSS. for insertion should be written on one side of the paper only, and sent to the Editor, H. St. C. L'Amie, Contributions, especially from Old Boys, are always welcome, but should not be too long.

The Subscription to the Cuthbertian (3/6 a year, or 10/6 for three years) should be sent to J. C. Cowgill, S. Cuthbert's College, Worksop, Notts., to whom also any change in a subscriber's address should be notified.