The Llandoverry School Journal

VOL. XVII.

MIDSUMMER, 1915.

No. 52.

Editorial.

IN looking through the Journal for this time last year we find that the Sub-Editor expressed a wish that 'The Llandoverry School Journal will come into its own.' During the last two terms only once has the Journal been published. The fault is still due to the lack of material for publication. Very few people outside the editors seem to take any notice of the appeals for 'copy' without which the Journal will never come to its own.

Our first duty is to congratulate the Warden, Mrs. Poole-Hughes, on the advent of a daughter. We were very glad to hear that she seems to be very happy since she was born in a boy school. We wish her long life and prosperity, and hope that she will spend many a happy year at the old School.

The past year has been to most of us, a very pleasant one, despite the gloom cast over it by the present great War and other events. The Roll of Honour of the Llandoverians who are serving His Majesty is daily increasing. It makes us all proud to think that the honour of this fine old School in Wales is being maintained so well by its sons who are proud of it. In our games we have also been very successful. Despite the scarcity of matches, our Football and Cricket Seasons were very successful. We have won all our Brecon matches this year, both the Fifteen and the Eleven coming up to the usual School standard.

The health of the School has been very good this term, since there has been no case of sickness. Last term, however, the treacherous weather filled the sick room with cases of that old complaint 'the flu.' The thanks of the whole School are due to Miss Russell for her great care and careful nursing.

This term has been very pleasant to many of those who will be leaving the School at the end. The weather has been very fine indeed, although we have not had a great deal of bathing. We all enjoyed the whole holiday which we had early in the term.

All things, both good and evil, must come to an end, including even the Journal. Many of the Senior boys will be leaving, and all of them wish the School every success, both in work and play, and those returning we hope that they will be more faithful than before.

The Sub-Editor is very thankful to W. H. Williams for his accounts of the Cricket Matches and to H. M. G. Rees for his account of the Sports.

Old Llandoverians serving in His Majesty's Forces.

The Football Season, 1914=15.

THE prospects at the beginning of the Christmas Term were by no means encouraging. Owing to the War the Fixture Card had to be abandoned. Consequently there were very few matches in which to test different players and to get the side together. In addition to this there were only two old colour men among the backs, and they had to play in new positions. There was no scarcity of material for a good pack of forwards, and in that lay the strength of the side.

Considering that the new players had no opportunity of acquiring experience apart from the practice games, the team deserved much credit for winning the matches against Mr. D. M. Evans' XV., Lampeter, and Brecon.

TEAM CHARACTERS.

1ST XV.

D. R. Williams, 1912-13-14-15.—A rather light forward who did not spare himself in the scrum or in the open. A sound tackler and good captain, who set an excellent example to the side.

R. H. Roderick, 1913-14-15.—An excellent kick, a sound tackler and a strong runner. Formerly a full back, but adapted himself to centre three-quarter.

R. M. Jones, 1913-14-15.—A really good all-round forward who dribbles and handles the ball well, but is apt to hold on too long.

W. H. Williams, 1913-14-15.—Out-half. He brought off some good runs, kicked well, and possesses a good swerve. Rather light and sometimes apt to hold on too long.

W. L. Evans, 1913-14-15.—A dashing and clever forward in the open, dribbles and tackles well, but does not do enough in the scrum.

G. H. Gennings, 1913-14-15.—A heavy and rather clumsy forward, who worked hard in the scrum and in the line-out.

A. E. Warhurst, 1914-15.—A forward who dribbled well and worked hard in the scrum, but was lacking in dash.

M. R. Jones, 1914-1915.—A light forward with plenty of dash, who worked hard in the scrum and open, but is apt to over-run the ball.

W. B. Evans, 1914-15.—A heavy and rather clumsy forward who did not make the most of his weight. Improved considerably during the season.

S. M. Williams, 1914-15.—In-half. A strong runner and safe tackler who passes well and shows much promise.

H. G. Davies, 1914-15.—A promising centre three-quarter who doubled and passed well. A good kick and safe tackler.

S. V. Swash, 1914-15.—A forward who had to adapt himself to the wing three-quarter position. A fair tackler, but does not run with enough determination.

W. G. Roberts, 1914-15.—A full-back who tackled excellently, and kicked with judgement, but a trifle slow.

A. T. Worthington, 1914-15.—A small and light forward, who worked hard in the scrum, and tackled well in the open.

E. M. Nicholas.—Wing three-quarter, a strong runner, a fair kick and tackler, but must learn to hold his passes.

2ND XV.

C. G. Jones.—A light forward who played with dash. A good dribbler.

J. R. Samuel.—A centre three-quarter who did not come up to expectations. He ran strongly but was weak in defence.

G. Llewellyn.—A good forward in the open and strong in defence.

E. M. Morgan.—A dashing forward when aroused. A poor dribbler but fell on the ball well.

H. Livesey.—A promising forward with plenty of dash. A good dribbler.

D. M. John.—A promising out half, good in attack but weak in defence.

W. G. Davies.—A wing three-quarter whose chances of promotion were spoiled by an accident. A safe tackler and a strong runner.

R. V. C. Williams.—A hard working but rather clumsy forward who tackled well.

C. B. Jones.—A fair centre, who tackled well occasionally, a good kick but did not run straight.

D. C. Muir, a very light in-half who played fearlessly, good in defence.

J. L. Evans.—A hard working forward who tackled well.

M. L. James.—A fast forward in the open but did not do his share in the scrum.

F. G. Nicholas.—A rather slow full back, a fair kick but poor in defence.

X.L. Caps were awarded to R. G. Davies, Lloyd Jones and J. H. Jones.

T. W. THOMAS.

Football—Easter Term.

VERY little football was played last term owing to the inclemency of the weather. Jupiter Pluvius was more unkind to the School than usual. A few first games were played, whilst the Senior Leagues were commenced but had to be abandoned. The Junior teams, under Mr. Tilly's coaching, managed to obtain good practice games, and easily accounted for the Swansea Grammar School Junior side, the match being played at Swansea. The score was 35 pt. to 5. The forwards, although not so clever as those of last year's side, worked hard and tackled well. Of the halves, W. H. Owen was prominent, whilst D. H. Jones, in attack and defence was at his best. Two neat dropped goals by W. H. Owen and D. H. Jones provided a pleasing feature of the game. The keenness and the progress of the team, as a whole, were exceedingly gratifying, and the members of it are to be congratulated on reaching the standard they attained.

The Sports.

THE STEEPLE CHASES.

THESE races were run on Wednesday, March 17. The weather was ideal, and the course was in a good condition. The spectators anticipated good races and were not disappointed, as the results reached all expectations. The Senior course was the same as last year's. Some of the competitors in the Senior race seem to have been in doubt as to the exact course, which had been well laid. We should like to impress this fact on future runners, that it is to their own advantage to study the course before the race.

The Junior race was run first, and a start was made at 3.15. D. H. Davies took the lead and maintained it right up to the woods. Then he was passed by R. L. Davies, who maintained his lead. At the first railway bridge Marcus Ballinger took the second place and maintained it to the end. R. L. Davies eventually won, with Ballinger second and D. K. Davies third.

There was a large 'field' for the Senior race, which started at 3.25. Timothy, one of the favourites, took the lead up to the river, with R. M. Jones close behind him. Jones then took the lead which he steadily maintained, Timothy falling behind. W. Morgan now loomed up and took second place. Going strong R. M. Jones took the first place with ease. Morgan obtaining second place, H. J. B. Phillips, who ran very well indeed, being third.

THE MILE.

The final of this race was run after tea on Saturday, March 27th. The course was in a good condition and helped on the runners considerably. There were six competitors. At the start R. M. Jones took the lead, which he kept throughout. In the third lap he ran hard, and had over a one hundred yards lead from N. E. Evans. Eventually Jones won the race comfortably by about two hundred yards. N. E. Evans and D. H. Atwood took the second and third places respectively. The last two are to be heartily congratulated on their good running. Time, 5 mins. 10 secs.

THE HALF MILE.

This race was run on Sports day, and was perhaps the keenest race in the whole sports. The fact that it was run close after the quarter-mile was responsible for the poor time, since some competitors ran both races. A good start was made, J. G. Williams and R. M. Jones setting the pace. These two soon left behind the other competitors, and it was evident that the race was between them. Jones led all the way, with

J. G. Williams close up. In the last lap both runners were breast to breast up to the 'straight,' then R. M. Jones sprinted, and gradually drawing away from Williams, won the race, with J. G. Williams a good second. Time, 2 min. 18 secs.

Sports Day.

THE Sports were held, as usual, on the School Cricket Field. The weather was fine, though cold. The ground was rather heavy owing to the heavy rains. There was a fair number of spectators present, although nothing like the usual attendance. There was no prize this year, but this fact did not damp the ardour of the sporting element of all the School. The time of the Senior hundred yards race was unfortunately not taken, whilst the quarter mile was quite a good race.

Throughout the whole sports H. G. Davies and W. G. Roberts were prominent amongst the Juniors, whilst R. M. Jones and J. G. Williams were prominent amongst the Seniors. H. G. Davies was Junior Ladies' Prizeman, with — pts., and R. M. Jones, Senior Ladies' Prizeman, with 31 pts.

The Cricket Season.

ON the whole the season has been a very successful one. Once more we have had excellent weather, especially in the earlier part of the season, but like all other schools our fixture list has been a very short one owing to the War.

The batting has been sound all through the team as a rule, but several members of the team would have made more runs if they had not tried to hit the cover off the ball before they had had time to see it; they must remember to be content to wait for an over or two and then, when they have learnt to time the ball, to use more freedom. We had more bowling than we really required this year, but our attack was weakened through Roderick having to bowl at medium pace, and the fact that we had no slow bowler. The fielding has been very good, and showed up very well in the Brecon match.

Perhaps the best performance of the season were wins over Aberystwyth and Brecon. In the former match Warhurst was in his best form, making 99 in a very short time, and taking 5 wickets for 44 runs. His innings was certainly the best played on the ground this season, some of his shots being quite first-class, while among his strokes were eighteen 4's.

The Masters match was lost mainly owing to good innings by Mr. Thomas and Soar. In the School second innings Warhurst made 94 in good style all round the wicket, while Swash also played well.

Against Mr. Tyler's XI. Timothy bowled well, taking 6 wickets for 53 and getting the 'hat-trick.' Roderick hit up 84 quickly, though he ought to have been caught off his first ball. He hit one 6 and sixteen 4's.

In the Brecon match our opponents had first innings and were all out for 100, chiefly owing to the steady bowling of Roderick and Timothy who bowled unchanged through the innings, the former taking 6 wickets for 47, the latter 4 for 43. Our fielding was very keen, J. G. Williams being especially prominent at square-leg. We lost S. M. Williams rather unluckily in the first over, but then John and Warhurst settled down and, playing good cricket, were not separated until it was fairly certain that we should lead on the first innings. Warhurst's was the best innings of the day, but John's was the more valuable of the two, as he went in when things were not going very well and played very steadily, though at times he was rather lucky. In their second innings Brecon made 49, and we lost two wickets in endeavouring to get the 14 runs required to win, in 3 overs.

The second XI. only had one match against Brecon. In their first innings they made 28, Lloyd's deadly bowling being responsible for the most part. We made 69, as also did Brecon in their second innings. We lost one wicket in making the necessary 29 runs, of which D. K. Davies had 22 not out. In Brecon's first innings, Lloyd had 6 wickets for 9 runs, and in the second innings W. D. Evans had 6 for 25. There is plenty of batting in the 2nd XI. but not quite enough experience, and most of the team can bowl, while their fielding is above last year's standard; in this last respect, as well as in general keenness, a good example was set by the captain, W. H. Williams. Once more the thanks of the team are due to Mr. Tilly for the endless pains which he expended on them.

The Junior XI. have only played one of their matches with Llanyre Hall, and that they won with three wickets in hand. There was one big score on either side; for Llanyre Hall T. C. Jones made 65, while for us A. P. N. Roberts made 77 not out. Llewellyn had 5 wickets for 29 and C. E. Jones 4 for 52. There is plenty of batting in the side and some good bowling. Again Mr. Thomas has given up much of his time to coaching them.

CHARACTERS OF 1st. XI.

R. H. Roderick (Capt.), 1913-14-15.—Has improved immensely as a bat. Unfortunately he was prevented from bowling at his usual pace by ill-health. A very fine fielder in any position. A good Captain who interested himself in the cricket of the whole School.

A. E. Warhurst, 1914-15.—An excellent bat, once he has settled down; is, however, apt to step away from a ball on his legs, and to cut at a short ball on the wicket. A useful bowler, and very good field.

S. M. Williams, 1913-14-15.—The soundest bat on the side; has a strong defence. A capital cover point, who throws in accurately and smartly. Might be a useful break bowler if he practised length bowling more.

R. M. Jones, 1914-15.—A useful bat, who hits hard; his present weakness is not playing straight at a ball on the leg stump. Fields well in the slips.

S. V. Swash, 1914-15.—As a bat he has come on a great deal, and has played useful innings on several occasions, but he must learn to keep his right foot down when playing forward. A good field.

G. R. Timothy, 1915.—A fair bat; he must learn to stand up to the ball and keep his right foot still. A good bowler, and sound field.

D. M. John, 1915.—A good bat; has scored consistently. He must learn to play straight at a ball on the leg stump and not try to turn it behind the wicket. A smart field.

W. G. Roberts, 1915.—A very promising bat; at present is rather afraid of putting power behind his strokes. Has kept wicket very well. Should be very useful next season.

J. G. Williams, 1915.—A fair bat, who would score more freely if he went in for hitting more frequently. Has always fielded well, and at times brilliantly. A useful change bowler.

H. G. Davies, 1915.—A promising all-round cricketer. Hits hard, but is apt to play with a cross-bat at times. His bowling is too short at present. A smart field.

R. W. Brown.—Fell off in his batting towards the end of the season, but ought to make runs when he has learned to play straight. Should be a good bowler when he has learned to keep his right foot behind the bowling crease, and thinks more of length rather than pace. A very fair field.

CRICKET MATCHES.

THE SCHOOL v. ST. DAVIDS COLLEGE, LAMPETER.

This match was played on the School ground on May 22nd. The School won the toss and took first 'knock.' We soon lost Swash, who was caught. R. M. Jones then joined S. M. Williams and helped to carry on the score to 21 before he was dismissed. Warhurst, the next man, was bowled by Edwards before he had scored. S. M. Williams and D. M. John improved matters, both of them batting well. John, after scoring made a useful 25, was unluckily run out. C. A. Thomas joined Williams and runs came freely until Williams was dismissed by a good catch, after having played a good innings of 34. Roderick, the School captain, now joined Thomas and played a brisk innings. Wynn Jones and W. G. Roberts also batted very well. The School innings then ended with 139 runs on the board. Considering the Lampeter bowling we ought to have made a bigger score, but some of the eleven were rather unlucky in getting out.

Lampeter started badly, 2 wickets being down for 7 runs. Christopher and T. C. Edwards then carried the score to 22 before the latter was clean bowled by Warhurst. The remaining Lampeter batsmen offered very little resistance to the School bowling, and were soon dismissed. Christopher however played a good innings of 31, hitting very hard. The School fielding was quite good, whilst Warhurst was the best bowler, taking 4 wkts. for 6 runs. Scores—

SCHOOL v. UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF WALES, ABERYSTWYTH.

This was the first match played against Aberystwyth, and proved to be a very good one. We hope that it will be the first of a series of annual matches. School batted first and did very well. The outstanding feature of the game was Warhurst's 99. He batted brilliantly throughout the whole innings, and had hard luck in not reaching his century. His innings included 18 boundaries, whilst his drives past extra-cover were great. The School started very moderately, 3 wickets falling for 37. Then Warhurst and D. M. John made a brilliant stand, the score being raised to 118 before John was bowled. The latter played a good innings and deserved his runs. C. A. Thomas was soon out, but Roderick, the School captain, brightened up affairs by a good innings of 20. He hit very hard, his 'sixer' being a good hit. Wynn Jones and Timothy also battled very well, hitting up 16 and 22 respectively. The School score was 247, quite a good performance.

Aberystwyth then went to the wickets and lost two wickets for 8. Lewis and Busher brought the score up to 53. Herbert then played a very good innings and scored 38 before he was clean bowled by Warhurst. The other batsmen did not make many runs, 7 wickets being down for 88. Knight and J. L. Roderick then made a brilliant stand, their partnership realising nearly a 100 runs. Knight was rather lucky but still hit very hard. Roderick played well for his 33. It seemed as if it was going to be a drawn game as the visitors had three wickets in hand. Wynn-Jones came to the School's rescue, by taking 3 wickets for 9 runs in the last few overs. The School bowling was good, Warhurst, as well as Wynn-Jones, bowled very well. Aberystwyth scored 185 and the School won by 62 runs. Scores —

THE SCHOOL v. THE MASTERS.

This match was played on May 31st and June 1st at the School ground. The masters took first knock, but soon lost Mr. Tilley and Mr. C. P. Lewis who were bowled by Timothy. Soar and Mr. Atkin then improved matters and brought the score to 45 before Atkin was smartly stumped by W. G. Roberts off Warhurst. The Rev. T. W. Thomas and Soar then made a brilliant stand. Both played good cricket and hit very hard indeed. The score had reached 167 before Soar was well bowled by Roderick. Mr. Matheson then joined Mr. Thomas and quickly hit up 24. Mr. Williams also batted very well and carried out his bat for a good innings of 32. The tail end did fairly well, the Masters being all out for 256.

The School started well, S. M. Williams and Swash batting well, the first wicket falling when 45 runs were on the board. R. M. Jones then joined Williams and batted well for 16. At the fall of the second wicket the score stood at 79. Then Warhurst was caught off Mr. Matheson before he had scored. W. G. Roberts also was dismissed before he had made many runs. Roderick, however, brightened up affairs by a nice 15. The remaining batsmen, with the exception of Timothy, fell easy victims to Mr. Thomas and Mr. Matheson. Timothy batted very well and carried his bat out for 20. The whole side was dismissed for 137 and thus we were a long way behind the Masters in the first innings.

The Masters decided to send the School in again. At our second venture we were very successful. The batting order was somewhat changed. The first few men batted well, 3 wickets falling for 70 runs. Then Warhurst gave a fine exhibition of cricket. He batted brilliantly and his 94 included 12 fours and one six. Roderick, Swash, and Timothy also batted very well. The second innings ended with the School score at 280. As the Masters did not go in again they had the verdict on the first innings.

In this game the School bowling was very poor indeed, the Masters knocking it about with ease. Scores :—

THE SCHOOL v. MR. C. P. LEWIS' XI.

This match was played at the School ground on June 12th. Mr. Lewis' side was quite a strong one, including Messrs. B. Percy Rees, Cliff Bowen, Hugh Howell—the Llanelly players—and several masters. Mr. Lewis' side batted first, the first few wickets falling cheaply. Mr. Tilley, however, played very well and was the only batsman who seemed to like the bowling. Mr. C. P. Lewis, The Rev. T. W. Thomas, and Mr. Williams reached double figures. The side was all out for 155 runs. Of the School bowlers Timothy was the most successful, although Roderick took a wicket with the only ball he bowled.

The School then went to the wickets and a good start was made by S. M. Williams and Swash. Williams was dismissed, however, when the score stood at 47. D. M. John and Warhurst did not stay long at the wickets. Swash, however, batted very well and was rather unlucky to run himself out when he had scored 40. R. M. Jones was the next to distinguish himself, carrying his bat through the rest of innings for a brilliant 61. Amongst his runs were 12 fours, and it is due to him that the School won the game. Roderick was the only other batsman to do anything, getting a good 22. The School was dismissed for 163, and won by 8 runs. On the whole the School played well, but the players were too keen on running short runs, and consequently throwing away wickets. Scores—

THE SCHOOL v. MR. TYLER'S XI.

This match was played at the School ground on June 24th. Mr. Tyler brought up quite a strong side, including Mr. T. A. L. Whittington, the M.C.C. and South Wales amateur, and Creber, the Swansea professional. Mr. Tyler's side batted first on a slow wicket. Whittington and Slingsby quickly settled down.

Both played very well, but Mr. Whittington's innings was a brilliant display of batting. His innings of 42 was faultless, and was well appreciated by everybody. He was dismissed by R. M. Jones off Timothy. Mr. Tyler and Dr. Jones were the only other batsmen who made good scores. The side was all out for 135. Timothy, Roderick and H. G. Davies bowled well for the School, Timothy performing the 'hat trick.'

S. M. Williams and Swash commenced the School innings. Creber soon dismissed S. M. Williams. D. M. John and Swash then batted quite well. Warhurst batted well and scored a sound 31 before he was caught. After W. G. Roberts' dismissal came the finest part of the whole game. Roderick batted brilliantly, hitting the bowlers all round the field. He seemed to like Creber, scoring many good fours off him. His innings of 84 included one 'six' and 16 fours. He was out by a brilliant catch on the boundary by Creber. Timothy and W. G. Roberts both batted well very. The School scored 211 and thus won by 76 runs. The main feature of the game was the brilliant fielding by the School. Scores—

LLANDOVERY COLLEGE v. CHRIST COLLEGE, BRECON.

The annual match between the two schools was played at the School ground on June 26th. It was rather a dull morning but cleared up after lunch. On the previous day and night it had rained very heavily and so the wicket was on the wet side, although it dried up quickly. This year's match was not so exciting since there were few visitors and none from Brecon. Brecon won the toss and went in to bat first. Timothy and Roderick opened the School bowling and remained unchanged throughout the innings. Timothy soon beat Parry, whilst H. E. Thomas was caught out brilliantly by G. G. Williams shortly afterwards. D. L. Jones and T. Ll. Evans then livened things for Brecon, Jones making 19 before he was bowled by Timothy. G. Evans and Wilkinson were soon dismissed by Roderick. The other batsmen, with the exception of D. G. Thomas, could do little with the School bowling. Brecon were all out shortly after lunch with 100 runs on the board. T. Ll. Evans was the only Brecon batsman who gave a good display of Cricket. He played a very sound innings and was well worth his 29 runs. The other Brecon batsmen, except D. L. Jones, did not strike one as being good. Roderick seems to have frightened them after last year's game. He and Timothy took all the wickets.

S. M. Williams and Swash opened the School's innings. Opposed to the bowling of D. L. Jones and Henshaw, Williams unluckily played on before there was a run scored. John then joined Swash and both played steadily until Swash was stumped by Morgan off D. L. Jones, the score being 17. Warhurst and John then made a fine stand, both batting very steadily. Warhurst played in his characteristic fashion and was bowled by T. Ll. Evans with the School score at 76. R. M. Jones then joined John and looked as if he was going to settle down, but after scoring 10 was caught at square leg off Evans.

W. G. Roberts batted steadily and backed up well. D. M. John was batting well and scoring quickly. However, when he had scored 49 he was bowled by Evans. His innings was of great use to the School, as he scored his runs at a critical period. The score now stood at 97, the School being 4 runs behind the Brecon total. Roderick scored the winning hit and scored freely before he was bowled by Saunders, Jones having scored 16. W. G. Roberts played well and got a useful 16 before he was run out. Timothy did not stay long at the wickets being caught by Parry. Brown also was soon dismissed for 1 run, and J. G. Williams joined H. G. Davies. The latter was, however, clean bowled by D. L. Jones, and the School innings closed for 136.

The Brecon bowlers were not very dangerous and the School's tail end should have scored more runs. T. Ll. Evans was their best bowler and ought to have been put on sooner. The School fielding was brilliant, J. G. Williams being prominent. His catch and ground fielding were excellent. Roderick and Timothy bowled well, the former bowling 6 maidens. Warhurst and D. M. John batted very well, obtaining their runs in good style.

Brecon were put in a second time but were soon dismissed. Roderick and Timothy easily accounted for them, the latter bowler taking 7 wickets for 20 runs, and Roderick 3 for 10. Brecon were all out for 49.

The School wanted 14 runs, but lost Roderick and S. M. Williams with 11 runs on the board. Unfortunately stumps were drawn and thus we won on the first innings. Score—

LLANDOVERY COLLEGE 2ND XI. v. CHRIST COLLEGE, BRECON, 2ND XI.

This match was played at Brecon on July 7th. It had rained heavily during the previous night and there was some doubt as to whether the match would be played. The ground was very wet and terribly slow, which placed the 2nd XI. at a disadvantage, since they had never played on a wet wicket.

Brecon won the toss and went in first. W. H. Williams and H. C. Lloyd opened the School bowling and bowled right through the innings, with the exception of one over. It is difficult to describe the Brecon innings. It will be sufficient to say that the Brecon eleven offered a poor resistance to the effective trundling of Lloyd and Williams. The whole side was out for 28 runs.

C. H. Morgan and D. K. Davies opened the School innings and played well until D. K. Davies was dismissed, the score being 16. Shortly afterwards C. H. Morgan was caught, having scored 14. Richards and Wynn Jones brought the score up to 42 before Jones was bowled. F. G. Nicholas hit very hard and carried his bat through the innings for 15. W. D. Evans was unluckily run out before he had received a ball. W. H. Williams, the School captain, was caught out without anything being added to the score. R. G. T. Davies and N. E. Evans scored a few runs, the whole side being dismissed for 69.

Brecon 2nd XI. were sent in again, and this time were a little more successful. Some of their batsmen played quite decently and a few of them reached double figures. W. D. Evans, who bowled for the School, was too good for them taking 6 wickets for 25, whilst W. H. Williams took 3 for 20. Brecon were all out for 69, and thus we were 28 behind.

D. K. Davies and C. H. Morgan went in, and after playing carefully obtained the necessary runs. Davies scored 22 not out. C. H. Morgan played well for his 6 before he was caught out. The School won this interesting game by 9 wickets. The feature of the day was the good bowling of the School. H. C. Lloyd took 6 wickets for 9 runs and W. H. Williams 3 for 14.

SCHOOL v. MR. MATHESON'S XI.

This match was played on Saturday, July 10th, on the School ground. The School won the toss and elected to take the first knock. S. M. Williams, the first man in for the School, played well for an excellent 32. R. M. Jones was the next batsman to distinguish himself, getting a brilliant 59. He would not have been out when he was, only he became careless. J. G. Williams was the only other batsman to reach double figures. Mr. Matheson took 5 wickets for 50, and D. H. Jones 5 for 49. The School were all out for 146. Mr. Tilly and Mr. R. Williams opened the innings for Mr. Matheson's XI. Mr. Tilly was soon caught out. Mr. Williams got a good 12, and Mr. Thomas 11. Mr. D. O. Williams played well for his 16. Mr. C. P. Lewis was well caught at mid-on when he had only scored 7. When stumps were drawn seven wickets were down, and Mr. Matheson carried out his bat for a good 19. The result was a drawn in the School's favour. G. R. G. Timothy took 3 wickets for 15 runs, and W. H. Williams took 4 for 20.

Italy.

FAIR Italy the Turk had fought,
And laid her arms aside ;
Now wars and strife to her were nought,
But she was Pleasure's bride ;
And she would rest in luxury
Beneath the palms of Tripoli.

So when the Hun came forth with brand
To set the world afire,
Fair Italy turned not her hand
To working wrongs so dire ;
And still her strains of melody
Floated away o'er Sicily.

But when his plighted word he broke,
And stained the world with gore,
And when he raised a cloud of smoke
Where place had reigned before,

She rose, prepared her blow to deal,
And clad her once again in steel.

Hard tried the Hun to quench her wrath ;
She did more angry grow,
The peace-strings from her sword tore off,
To deal the fatal blow,
Right now should surely win the day
Fair Italy had joined the fray.

The School Committee.

EASTER TERM, 1915.

A MEETING of the School Committee was held in the Prefects' Room on March 5th, 1915, the Rev. T. W.
Thomas presiding.

Business : To elect Sports Secretaries and to make arrangements as regards the sports.

First of all the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

D. R. Williams resigned his position as Sports Secretary and proposed that R. H. Roderick and H. M. G. Rees be appointed joint Secs. The Committee then elected them and closed.

March 30th.—A meeting was held in the Prefect's Room, the Rev. T. W. Thomas presiding.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

Business : To decide the winners of the Ladies Medals.

The difficulty about awarding the Senior Medal arose through the fact that the time of the open 100 yards race was not taken. J. G. Williams the winner did not put forward a claim to re-run the race and so R. M. Jones was declared winner of the Senior Ladies' Medal, with 31 points, whilst J. G.
Williams had 26 points.

The Junior Ladies Medal was awarded to H. G. Davies.

On the proposition of D. R. Williams a vote of thanks to the Warden for generously defraying the cost of the Ladies Medals this year again was unanimously passed.

The meeting then closed.

SUMMER TERM, 1915.

A meeting of the Committee was held in the Prefects' Room on May 8th, the Rev. T. W. Thomas presiding.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

Business : To elect a Cricket Captain for the season 1915.

R. H. Roderick was unanimously elected Captain of the 1st XI.

A. E. Warhurst was elected Vice-Captain.

S. M. Williams was elected Hon. Secretary.

The meeting then closed.

July 9th.—A meeting of the Committee was held in the Prefects' Room, the Rev. T. W. Thomas presiding.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

Business : To elect a Sub-Editor for the School Journal.

The only name proposed for the Sub-Editorship was R. M. Jones, who was therefore elected.

The meeting then closed.

D. M. WILLIAMS,
Hon. Secretary.
