EARLY HISTORY OF THE SCHOOL. IX.

(Concluding Article).

THE USHER.

There shall be an Usher, some man virtuous in living and well-lettered, that shall teach under the Master as the High Master shall appoint him, some single man or wedded.

This Usher shall be chosen by the Rulers, Governors and Supervisors before mentioned, with the advice of the High Master, as often as the room shall be void, a man whole in body and of learning fit for that room, which shall before the said Rulers and Schoolmaster be appointed what he shall do in his office, the Schoolmaster saying unto him in this wise—

Sir, before these my masters here, the Rulers of this School, I shew unto you that they have chosen you to be Undermaster of this School, and to teach alway from time to time as I shall appoint you, and supply my room in my absence when it be granted me by my masters the Rulers, Governors and Supervisors, and for such more labour in my absence I shall somewhat see to you as my masters here shall think best.

Then the Rulers shall exhort that Usher diligently to do his duty, and shall say unto him in this wise—

Your room is no perpetuity, but according to your labour and diligence ye shall continue, otherwise found not according and reasonably warned by us, ye shall depart ; if it be so that at any time ye will depart of your own mind, ye shall give us an half year warning.

If any controversy be betwixt you and the High Master, ye shall stand at our direction in anything.

If he will promise this, then let the Rulers appoint the Usher and assign him his lodging, if any be, and to have such wages as shall be appointed him by the said Rulers, Governors and Supervisors.

A BOOK OF REGISTER TO BE KEPT FOR THE INCOME OF ALL THE SCHOLARS.

Also that every scholar at his income shall pay four pence towards the reparations of the School and other defence of the same, as shall seem good by the Governors thereof, for the avoiding the danger of fire.

ORDERS TO BE KEPT IN THE SCHOOL.

The scholars shall come to the School at vi of the clock, and shall go to dinner at xj, and come again at xij of the clock, and so continue to five.

Also the Schoolmaster shall every Wednesday and Friday at ix of the clock go to their parish church with his scholars before him in order, and if there be no service at that time then he to read a chapter, and at the departing out of the church to sing a psalm with all the children and scholars, such one as shall seem to him best for that time, praying for the Queen's Majesty and all other founders that giveth either money or lands to the maintenance thereof.

This is the concluding article of the series begun in the December 1913 number. These articles have been abstracted from the late Mr. Arthur F. Leach's large quarto volume on the History of Worcester Schools. Mr. A. F. Leach was a Charity Commissioner and one of the leading authorities in England on the history of schools, and will be remembered as the seconder of the motion for 'The Prosperity of the School' at the opening of the Perrins' Hall in 1915. We regret to have to record his death, which occurred later in the same year. Much of the abstracting for later articles in the Magazine was done by the late Mr. J. E. R. Allen.

CRICKET.

W.R.G.S. 1ST XI. v. MALVERN COLLEGE COLTS.—Our first match was played at Malvern on Saturday, June 9th. We lost the toss and Malvern took first knock. From the start runs came freely, Curtis hitting cleanly all round the wicket. When the total reached 114 for 7 wickets the innings was closed. Of our six bowlers Heath did well, taking 4 wickets for 26 runs. Our innings was disastrous. Perkins alone reached double figures, and the whole side was dismissed for 42. Scores:—

W.R.G.S. 1ST XI. v. ROYAL ENGINEERS.—This match was played on Flagge Meadow on Saturday, June 16th. The visitors batted first and made a good start. After 64 runs had been scored for 2 wickets Park was put on to bowl. He immediately met with success and eventually took 7 wickets for 42 runs. Randall, who made 106, played a good innings, which included 14 boundaries. With 183 runs to make we started badly, losing Lee and Doody for less than 20 runs. Perkins and Park made a good stand and took the score to 50. Then followed an excellent partnership between Wells C. and Wheal, each of whom hit out with vigour. The remaining batsmen failed and we were beaten by 49 runs. Scores :—

W.R.G.S. 1ST XI. v. MR. P. J. WASLEY'S XI.—This match, against a side composed almost entirely of Old Boys, proved very interesting. The School batted first and made 59 runs. Perkins and Park played well for their runs, but Somer's bowling proved too much for the others. The visitors started badly and lost 5 wickets for 28 runs. Somer then joined Roberts and by free hitting took the score to 60. On going in again we did much better. Doody made several good strokes in a useful innings. At 66 for 5 wickets we declared, leaving our opponents 50 to get in as many minutes. Wheal and Park bowled with considerable success at first and 8 wickets fell for 31 runs. After this the batsmen got the upperhand and we lost in the last over. Scores :—

W.R.G.S. 1ST XI. v. ROYAL ENGINEERS.—On Saturday, June 30th, we played the return match against the R.E.'s on Flagge Meadow. We lost the toss and took the field. After losing 2 wickets for 6 runs, Whiting and Toope made a good stand. However, Doody and Park bowled well throughout and the score only reached 74. We made a most disastrous start, losing 5 wickets for 9 runs. Wells W. and Dundas then came together and an excellent stand was made. Both batsmen went for the bowling with vigour until a misunderstanding cost Dundas his wicket. When the last man came in we still wanted 10 to win; but amidst great excitement Church was run out when the scores were equal. Scores :—

W.R.G.S. 2ND CLUB XI. v. HARTLEBURY GRAMMAR SCHOOL.—On Wednesday, July 11th, we won this match very easily. The visitors batted first, Wells W. and Moore bowled with great effect and 4 wickets fell for 20 runs. Later Dalton hit out vigorously, making 33. The innings closed for 80. Armstrong and Dundas gave us a good start and we passed their score with only 3 wickets down. Wells W. and Moore hit hard and often, and added 130 for the fifth wicket. Wells' century included eight boundaries and was a very creditable performance. Scores :—

OTHER MATCHES.

On Saturday, June 16th, an "under 13-3" team went to Colwall to play against the Downs School. We batted first and Maund and Badger gave us a good start, the latter hitting up 21. The rest of the team failed and we were all out for 46. They passed our score with 5 wickets down, thanks to a good innings by Smith (26). In our second innings we did much better, making 77, of which Coney made 32 and Huddleston 25. Left with 48 to get, the Downs School easily accomplished the task with the loss of only 2 wickets. Pope was our most successful bowler.

Scores :—W.R.G.S., 46 and 77 ; Downs School, 76 and 56 (for 2 wickets).

The Downs School 2nd XI. came over to play against our "under 12-3" team on the same day. Most of our batsmen failed against the bowling of Grimshaw, only Boulter meeting with success. The visitors replied with 60, in spite of Moy's good bowling. On going in again Smith C. and Moy made good scores and we declared at 61 for 3 wickets. The visitors had no difficulty in avoiding defeat.

Scores :—W.R.G.S., 35 and 61 (for 3 wickets) ; Downs School, 60 and 34 (for 3 wickets).

HOUSE CRICKET.

THE CHALLENGE SHIELD.

The first round produced very one-sided games. Temple easily defeated Baskerville, and School House, for whom Wells W. scored 61, proved much too strong for Woolfe. The semi-final was played under unpleasant conditions ; rain prevented a start being made until after 3 o'clock. Tudor batted first and made 51, Park and Heath sharing the wickets. Temple started badly, but a good innings by Park enabled them to win by 20 runs.

The final between School House and Temple proved an excellent game. Each side completed an innings during the first hour's play, Temple leading by 9 runs. Eventually School House required 75 to win with $\frac{3}{4}$ hour to make the runs in. A fine forcing innings of 39 by Wells C. enabled his side to win just before time, with only 2 wickets to spare.

THE LEAGUES.

The 1st XI. Cup fell to the School House, who had little difficulty in winning almost all their matches. The best scores were made by Minchen, Yates, Caudwell and Frost, the two last named being prominent with the ball as well. Tudor made a good second and only lost two matches. Stirling and Hall C. M. did very well with bat and ball, and Rawson's batting and wicket-keeping deserves mention. Woolfe had a good bowler in Saunders, and Temple ought to have done better with a team containing promising players.

School House also proved easy winners of the 2nd XI. Cup, winning all their matches. Adams, Rothschild and Routledge met with considerable success. Baskerville did well and was only defeated by the cup-winners. Marsh F. S. and Sandeman were always conspicuous with bat and ball. Tudor won half their games, but Woolfe and Temple generally fell easy prey to their opponents.

The 3rd XI. Cup was won by Temple, who did not lose a game. Rogers and the brothers Pope were very good all round. School House was second and possesses a promising player in Simson H. A. Woolfe and Tudor did not meet with much success.

THE SPORTS.

In pursuance of our policy of reducing all School functions to as simple a form as possible during the War, the Sports, held on Thursday, June 7th, were shorn of much of their pre-war formality. It might reasonably have been expected that this, combined with the somewhat threatening weather of the morning, would very greatly reduce the number of our visitors; but the interest in the Sports seemed unabated, and large numbers of parents and friends visited Flagge Meadow during the afternoon.

Although no records were broken, the running was consistently good throughout. The rivalry between the School, Temple and Tudor Houses was keen, and it was not till late in the afternoon that School House had secured a sufficient margin of points to render them certain of possessing the Sports Cup for another year.

The finishes of many of the races were very close, there being some dead heats, while the most prominent individual performance of the day was that of Minchen, who, besides running well in the Team Race, took first place in three open competitions.

The usual array of cups and prizes was replaced by a set of inexpensive medals. These were, at the end of the day, presented by the Mayoress, after a speech of congratulation to the victors and hope for the vanquished. The proceedings were then suitably completed by hearty if somewhat noisy expressions of thanks, from the boys, to the Mayoress for her presence.

OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS.

This Term's work has been mainly a preparation for the Annual Inspection. It has comprised Platoon and Company Drill, with the training of N.C.O.'s as commanders, Extended Order Drill, and Attack Practice.

For Company Drill a 'skeleton company was formed, and N.C.O.'s and senior cadets have had a good opportunity of showing their ability in various commands. As a consequence, words of command have greatly improved in confidence and volume. "Changing over—at the double" had in some cases quite an exhilarating effect. We have also tried the new balanced step, which we hope to elaborate next year.

On Empire Day the Corps took part in the celebration on Pitchcroft, when the Mayor (Alderman A. Carlton) addressed the assembled school children of Worcester. On the following Sunday, a Church Parade was attended at the Cathedral.

On June 22nd, cadets took part in an interesting ceremony on Pitchcroft. A Ceremonial Parade was held by Brigadier-General E. A. W. S. Grove, and five medals were presented to surviving relatives of fallen soldiers. All Worcester troops were represented. After the presentation there was a "March Past" in column. Cadets are to be congratulated upon their steadiness on this occasion.

On Saturday, July 7th, the Corps was inspected by Lieut.-Col. C. E. Greenway (commanding troops at Norton Barracks). After a "General Salute," the clothing, equipment and arms of the cadets were inspected, and the "March Past" followed. At the conclusion of the "March Past" we were tested with a surprise order, that the enemy were advancing upon us over Merriman's Hill. The extensions were done very smartly by cadets, and the N.C.O.'s took charge of their sections in a creditable manner. We advanced to the attack by sectional rushes; the supports reinforced the firing line, and the conclusion came with a rousing charge.

The Company then fell in with the drum for Company Drill, under its various officers. Company-Sergt.-Major G. W. Morrall and Quartermaster-Sergt. C. R. Heath handled the company in a very cool and satisfactory manner. While this was in progress the signallers were being tested. The recruits were put through their squad drill by Lance-Corpl. S. C. Ryder.

In his address to the Corps, the Inspecting Officer expressed himself well pleased with the keenness displayed upon parade. The turn-out was excellent, and the arms were clean. He emphasised the importance of "esprit de corps" in the regiment as in the school, and reminded those cadets who would be taking up commissions of the traditions they had to uphold. He asked them to remember the example of Bandmaster Mackie's family, which had been connected with the Worcestershire Regiment for three generations. An inspection of stores, range, and armoury followed: all kit had been cleaned and laid out in the lockers. The Inspecting Officer was well satisfied with this evidence of keenness on the part of cadets.

On Sunday, July 8th, a Church Parade was held at St. Nicholas' Church.

A visit was paid by 23 senior cadets to the open range at Tiddesley Wood. A motor omnibus was chartered, and a very agreeable day was spent. As a result, seven cadets passed Part I. of the general musketry course, Wheal C. W. W.

having the highest score. Competition for the House Shooting Shield will be held during the last week of Term.

The following promotions have been made this Term :—

Sergt. Heath C. R.	to be Quartermaster-Sergt.
Corpl. Lee C. K.	„ Sergt.
Corpl. Church C. B.	„ Sergt.
Corpl. Wells C.	„ Sergt.
Lce.-Cpl. Thomas A.	„ Corpl.
Lce.-Cpl. Lamb H. B.	„ Corpl.
Cadet Reid J. W.	„ Lce.-Corpl.
Cadet Minchen L. W.	„ Lce.-Corpl.
Cadet Ashwell P. E.	„ Lce.-Corpl.

Sergeant Lee C. K. has been accepted for an Artillery Officer Cadet unit, and Sergeant Wells C. for an Infantry Officer Cadet unit.

Captain H. Dippie, Worcestershire Regt., who was in command of the Corps from the date of its establishment until shortly after the outbreak of war, has been wounded while fighting with the Salonica forces. Sec. Lieut. F. Nicholas, who succeeded him as Commanding Officer, took up a commission in the Worcestershire Regt. in 1915, and has now been wounded in France. We are glad to say that both are only slightly wounded, and are making satisfactory progress.

BOXING.

The Boxing Competition held at the end of last Term proved very successful. Mr. H. G. Payne, who is now in the Royal Engineers, took instruction classes three nights a week. As these classes were attended by many boys, there was a larger number of entries than usual, and the standard of the boxing was much higher than in previous years. Every house was well represented, and the Inter-house Competition was very keen. In the lightweights Maund, although handicapped by boxing bigger opponents, fought pluckily, but was beaten before the final round. Wells S. and Watkins fought in the final round, and an interesting bout ensued. Wells S., although having the advantage in reach, height and weight, had a hard fight to beat his speedier and more skilful opponent.

The middle-weights provided some very interesting bouts. In the semi-final round Moore boxed Wheal, and Frost, Dovey. The fight between Frost and Dovey was very interesting, and an extra round was needed ; although Dovey was damaged the most he won, because of Frost's slowness. In the final Dovey boxed pluckily against Wheal, but he was altogether outclassed.

Although the heavyweights provided some close finishes, there was more slogging than science in the boxing. In the first round Attwell beat Morrall, and Caudwell beat Parker. But if the vanquished had been perfectly fit, the results might have been different. In the semi-final Matheson and Caudwell were outclassed by their opponents Doody and Attwell. In the final there was for some time uncertainty as to the victor, but Attwell's slow slogging enabled him to win. At the conclusion three cheers were given for Mr. Payne.

FIVES.

In the Senior Competition, the list of entries, which contained names of many boys who had never played before, was rather bigger than usual. In spite of the inclemency of the weather, several very interesting matches were played. In the first round, Caudwell was beaten by C. K. Lee after an even commencement. In the second round, C. G. Attwell beat G. N. Armstrong after three very close games, while G. W. Morrall had an easy victory over M. B. Matheson. G. W. Morrall met C. G. Attwell next, and beat him, while C. K. Lee beat K. H. Perkins after two very fast and even games. In the final round, C. K. Lee met G. W. Morrall, whom he beat, thereby winning the Fives Cup.

In the Junior Competition, the winners of the first round were J. A. Sinclair, A. W. Kirkaldy, S. Wells, and E. Simson. A stiff contest took place between Kirkaldy and Wells ; in the end the former won. In the final round, Kirkaldy met Sinclair, who had easily beaten Simson. An excellent match took place, resulting in a win for Kirkaldy.

It is hoped that victors and vanquished alike will continue to take an active interest in the game of Fives, which, besides developing the physique of the player, cultivates agility and precision. We hope for a record number of entries next Spring Term.

REMINISCENCES OF GREAT COMBERTON.

The strawberry season will for ever remind us of a short but sweet holiday spent at Great Comberton. The idea of sleeping on a straw bed with pigs around and beneath us was at first somewhat repugnant, but we were prepared for anything. The first night was comparatively uneventful, the monotony being broken by an occasional "Well, well, Gerald" and the grunting of the pigs. The heavy sleepers slept nearest the door and thereby received full benefit of any missiles projected from the yard. Some of the more rollicsome of the party not infrequently indulged in a game of "tanks," when they should have been taking advantage of the golden hours of the night. By far the most attractive game in wet weather was an improvised combination of cricket and fives; the fielder at mid-on was invariably an objectionable person in the eyes of the batsman by reason of his obstruction. It was found extremely useful to have a cheap man to fetch the ball from the yard during a heavy shower, considering that the players wore "evening" dress.

Everybody suddenly became naturalists, taking a keen interest in the "flowers of the field," especially of the daisy and lily family. During our stay at least one member took to "violet breeches." One has only to see the article to realise that the attraction is not unfounded. Certain members were much puzzled by the word "squish." We hasten to add it may refer to "squash" of the variety known as lemon, which is kept by a greengrocer in Pershore who also keeps "Captain's Sister."

Two of our number disappeared "in file" one night on a "dancing daffodilly," which had to be towed into dock by one of the Eveshamites.

At the time of going to press we are still wondering when we shall receive our pay. Whether there will be any is uncertain, because our sustenance had to be deducted from this amount.

We were fortunate in finding a rat-proof store for squish, which was always found very acceptable.

N.B.—The references may be obtained from any of the “fruit pickers” for the moderate charge of three pence. The money thus obtained will be handed over to the “squish” fund.

HOUSE LETTERS.

WOOLFE HOUSE.

The end of the Term draws near, and the House Letter must be written, but this time the task is far from pleasant. Woolfe House has no successes worthy of note to its credit, and this is due to the deliberate slacking of members of the House who used to be sportsmen. It is very surprising, considering that Woolfe House has been the only House to wrest the Sports' Cup from School House (this happened four years ago), that Woolfe takes such an insignificant part and place in the Sports. This lack of enthusiasm and sporting spirit reflects badly on the members of the House, who, with certain exceptions, take no active part at all in the School games; and it is the members themselves who must remedy this bad spirit.

Two years ago Woolfe wrested the Challenge Shield from School House. Every member used to take an interest in games then, but now the attitude is reversed. Members of the House have deliberately slacked off, and have encouraged others to do the same; the result being that Woolfe has played second-rate teams against strong opponents. This state of affairs cannot go on, and the sportsmanlike “Wolves” must see that there is no repetition of this next Term.

In the 1st XI. House Competitions, owing to the strenuous exertions of Whitcombe, Saunders, Evans and Wyatt, we finished third. The 2nd XI. was weak and finished fourth, while the 3rd XI. finished third.

We sustained a heavy defeat when we played School House in the first round of the Challenge Shield, but we did our best.

In conclusion, we congratulate Lamb on his promotion to Corporal, and also Wyatt, Saunders, Whitcombe, Evans, Coney and Lamb on winning their cricket colours.

WOOLFE.

TEMPLE HOUSE.

A feature of most House Letters seems to be a vivid description of the doings, generally unexciting in the extreme, of the House elevens in order, followed by a discourse upon the winning—or losing—of the Challenge Shield, according to an unknown reformer in the last issue.

He evidently wishes us to drop these old-fashioned methods and write upon entirely new lines. Alas, our hands are tied! Can we extemporize upon the work done by members of the House during the Term? No, we are not capable of such flights of imagination as this would entail.

In this letter, at least, we shall not require much space to describe the doings of the 1st and 2nd XI.'s. They have not succeeded in winning a match. On the other hand, the 3rd XI., metaphorically speaking, have covered themselves with glory, winning all their matches and with them the 3rd XI. Cup.

In the Sports the House took second place, being well represented in most of the events. Baldwyn J. C., who also won the Cross-Country Race, came first in the Mile, dead heat with a member of another House.

The Challenge Shield provided some very interesting games. Beating Baskerville and Tudor in the first and second rounds we again met School in the final. This game proved to be very even. Batting first we were dismissed for 33, but retaliating, School were all out in a short time for 24. We thus won on the first innings. In the second innings we made a somewhat better score, 65 all out. With 45 minutes left to play our hopes soared high. By dint of much slogging, chiefly of Wells C., School managed to make 92 runs all out before time, thus beating us on the two innings.

A word to the younger members of the House. At the end of this Term we shall be losing the majority of the elder members. The future position of the House depends upon your keenness.

House colours have been awarded to those members in the 1st XXII., and Stroyan R. W., Law W. F., and Stocker S. J.

Congratulations to Heath C. R. on his promotion to Quartermaster Sergeant in the Corps. The Shooting Competition takes place in the near future, but of that more in the next issue.

TEMPLE.

SCHOOL HOUSE.

We have had a very successful Term, having succeeded in regaining the Challenge Shield after a hard struggle with Temple House. The game was keenly contested throughout, and our opponents held the upper hand until near the end. C. Wells, our Captain, distinguished himself by scoring thirty-nine in our second innings.

We won the Sports' Cup by over one hundred points. Our 1st XI., captained by Minchen, won the 1st XI. cup. In the 2nd XI. are several promising players. These, with the rest of the team, who make up in enthusiasm what they lack in skill, won their cup. The 3rd XI. have not done so well, and we hope they will be more successful next Term. They must remember that shouting and arguing will not win them the cup, or even any matches.

House colours have been awarded to those in the XXII., and Minchen, Caudwell, Frost, Yates, Reid, and Bedingfield.

A prominent feature of this Term has been the increased number of amateur "photographers." One enterprising member makes forty-five per cent. profit on every photograph he sells. Some amusement has been caused by the attempts of several people to take their bicycles to pieces and rebuild them. The results cannot yet be recognised.

Some of our senior members, needing a "rest" after the London Matric, have been picking fruit at Great Comberton and Evesham. They say that much hard work was done, and it is certain that strawberries "went down" that week. The Eveshamites, who stayed at a hotel, had a balance in hand after paying expenses; but the others, who slept in more humble beds (on straw, in a loft, above the pig-stye) had little if any profit to show.

We are well represented in the Corps this Term, every eligible member having joined, and all take a keen interest in the work of the Corps. We congratulate Sergts. C. Wells and Church, and Lance-Corporals Reid, Minchen and Ashwell on their promotions.

This Term we had a visit from Hemus. He has finished his artillery course at Brighton and is now on Salisbury Plain.

Our ranks last Term were depleted by the loss of Hendey and Watkins, but we welcome Hackett and the brothers Greeves.

We have several members in for the Locals and we wish them every success.

As we drop the pen rumours are flying round that everyone is undertaking work of National importance during the holidays. We hope it's true.

TUDOR HOUSE.

In the 1st XXII. we are represented by Wheal C. W. W., Lee C. K., and Thomas A. In the first round of the Challenge Shield we were beaten by Temple House. We batted first on a very wet wicket, and made only 50 runs. When our opponents batted the pitch was a little drier, and they scored 70 runs before the rain put an end to the match.

Our 1st XI. has had a successful season, having won all except three matches ; we were unfortunate in being beaten twice by School House and once by Woolfe at the beginning of the season. The last time we played School House we won, thanks to the batting of Rawson, Hall, and Day, and the bowling of Stirling and Hall. Rawson has batted particularly well this season, having made top-score in many matches, including one innings of 38. Hall, Stirling, Attwell, Innis and Day have had success with the ball.

Our 2nd XI. have pulled off four matches this season. Badger was easily the best batsman, being unbeaten with 50 runs to his credit in a match against Woolfe ; Maund, Moy and Palmer have also played some good innings. Badger and Smith bowled well throughout the season, and were relieved at times by Palmer and Hawkins. Our 3rd XI. have met with little success this season, their best effort being against School House in a drawn match.

In the Sports we did very satisfactorily ; we ran second to School House in the Team Race. The individual efforts of Wheal C. W. W., Lee C. K., and Attwell C. G. in the Throwing of the Cricket Ball, Quarter Mile and Mile respectively are worthy of praise.

In the O.T.C. we have four N.C.O.'s ; Lee C. K. and Thomas A. are to be congratulated upon their recent promotions. We hope, this Term, to win back the Shooting Shield which was taken off us by School House two years ago ; we have reason to expect some good shooting as we have several first-class shots, including Wheal C. W. W., the House Captain, who did so well at Tiddesley Wood.

TUDOR.

BASKERVILLE.

We can look back upon this past Summer Term as being a quite satisfactory one from the point of view of " sport." From our small House membership of 16 we have been able to put an XI. into the field to compete with the House 2nd XI.'s. Thanks to the valuable services rendered by Veeger

H. G., Marsh F. S., Sandeman and Forster, we have done very well, having been beaten only by School House. In addition to this XI. we have three members of the XXII. and two of those in the 1st XI.

In the first round of the Challenge Shield we were drawn against Temple and were beaten. Batting first we were soon disposed of for the low total of 23. Temple's first six wickets then fell very quickly, a timely stand at the seventh wicket only saving the situation. For Baskerville, Doody F. made 15 and took 7 wickets for 31 runs ; and Dundas, although not so fortunate in obtaining wickets bowled a very good length ball throughout the innings.

Not being fully represented in the Annual Athletic Sports we did not do as well as was anticipated. We have to thank Marsh G. L. for the majority of our points and congratulate him upon his three victories in junior events. The fine running ofth is nine year old was certainly a feature of the afternoon's programme.

We shall be able to supply a good team in the Shooting trophy competition, and we hope to give a very good account of ourselves.
